The First Lesson | Jeremiah 1:4-10

The word of the Lord came to me saying,

“Before I formed you in the womb I knew you,
and before you were born I consecrated you;
I appointed you a prophet to the nations.”

Then I said, “Ah, Lord God! Truly I do not know how to speak, for I am only a boy.” But the Lord said to me,

“Do not say, ‘I am only a boy’;
for you shall go to all to whom I send you,
and you shall speak whatever I command you,
Do not be afraid of them,
for I am with you to deliver you,

says the Lord.”

Then the Lord put out his hand and touched my mouth; and the Lord said to me,

“Now I have put my words in your mouth.
See, today I appoint you over nations and over kingdoms, to pluck up and to pull down, to destroy and to overthrow,
to build and to plant.”

Reader	The Word of the Lord.
People	Thanks be to God.

The Second Lesson | Hebrews 12:18-29

You have not come to something that can be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest, and the sound of a trumpet, and a voice whose words made the hearers beg that not another word be spoken to them. (For they could not endure the order that was given, “If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned to death.” Indeed, so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, “I tremble with fear.”) But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

See that you do not refuse the one who is speaking; for if they did not escape when they refused the one who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we reject the one who warns from heaven! At that time his voice shook the earth; but now he has promised, “Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven.” This phrase, “Yet once more,” indicates the removal of what is shaken—that is, created things—so that what cannot be shaken may remain. Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks, by which we offer to God an acceptable worship with reverence and awe; for indeed our God is a consuming fire.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn |

“Heal me, hands of Jesus”

Sharpe

1. Heal me, hands of Je - sus, and search out all my pain:
2. Fill me, joy of Je - sus: anx - i - e - ty shall cease re - store my hope, re - move my fear and bring me peace a - gain.

and heaven's se - ren - i - ty be mine, for Je - sus brings me peace!

The Gospel | Luke 13:10-17

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Now Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, "Woman, you are set free from your ailment." When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, "There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day." But the Lord answered him and said, "You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?" When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon | The Rev. Dr. Simon J. Mainwaring

The people are seated at the preacher's invitation. A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

The Nicene Creed |

The people stand.

Officiant Let us affirm our faith using the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Offertory Anthem |

“O God beyond all praising”

from The Planets (1918), Gustav Holst (1874-1934)
arr. Dan Forrest (b. 1978)

O God beyond all praising,
We worship You today
And sing the love amazing
That songs cannot repay;
For we can only wonder
At ev'ry gift You send,
At blessings without number
And mercies without end:
We lift our hearts before You
And wait upon your word,
We honor and adore you,
our great and mighty Lord.

Then hear, O gracious Savior,
Accept the love we bring,
That we who know Your favor
May serve You as our King;
And whether our tomorrows
Be filled with good or ill,
We'll triumph through our sorrows
And rise to bless you still:
To marvel at Your beauty
And glory in Your ways,
And make a joyful duty
Our sacrifice of praise.

Michael Perry (1942-1996), written 1982

The score ends with a double bar line.

Eucharistic Prayer | Alternative Great Thanksgiving D

Celebrant	The Lord is here.
People	God's Spirit is with us.
Celebrant	Lift up your hearts.
People	We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant	Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People	It is right to offer thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is the joy of our salvation,
God of the universe,
to give you thanks through Jesus Christ.
You said, 'Let there be light';
there was light.
Your light shines on in our darkness.
For you the earth has brought forth life in all its forms.
You have created us
to hear your Word, to do your will
and to be fulfilled in your love.

You sent your Son to be for us the way we need to follow and the truth we need to know.
You send your Holy Spirit to strengthen and to guide, to warn and to revive your Church.
Therefore, with all your witnesses who surround us on every side, countless as heaven's stars, we praise you for our creation and our calling,
with loving and with joyful hearts as we sing:

Sanctus and Benedictus |

Land of Rest

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and piano accompaniment. It is in 4/4 time and features a simple, folk-like melody. The lyrics are: Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry, Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Music: American folk melody; arr. Marcia Pruner, harm. Annabel Morris Buchanan (1889-1983)

Celebrant continues

Blessed are you, most holy, in your Son;
On that night before he died
he took bread and gave you thanks.
He broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said:
Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you;
do this to remember me.

After supper, he took the cup,
and gave you thanks.
He gave it to them and said:
Drink this. It is my blood of the new covenant, shed for you, shed for all,
to forgive sin;
do this to remember me.

Therefore with this bread and wine
we recall your goodness to us.
God of the past and present,
we your people remember your Son.

We thank you for his cross and rising again,
we take courage from his ascension;
we look for his coming in glory and in him we give ourselves to you.

With thanksgiving and hope we say:

Glory to you, Lord Christ;
your death we show forth;
your resurrection we proclaim;
your coming we await;
Amen! Come Lord Jesus.

Send your Holy Spirit, that we who receive Christ's body may indeed be the body of Christ, and we who share his cup draw strength from the one true vine.
Called to follow Christ,
help us to reconcile and unite.

Called to suffer,
give us hope in our calling.
For you, the heavenly one, make all things new;
you are the beginning and the end, the last and the first,
to whom we bring our songs of everlasting praise.

Blessing, honor and glory be yours,
here and everywhere,
now and forever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant As Christ teaches us, we pray,

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours
now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.
People We, who are many, are one body, for we all share the one bread.
Celebrant The gifts of God for the people of God. Whoever you are, wherever you are on your journey, you are welcome at this table.

All are welcome at God's table. You may receive communion by taking both the bread and wine or simply taking the bread if you do not wish to receive the wine. If you wish to receive a blessing instead, you may cross your arms over your chest.

Gluten free bread is available.

Healing prayers are offered in the chapel during communion.

Communion Anthem |

“Draw us in the Spirit’s tether”

Harold W. Friedell (1905-1958)

Draw us in the Spirit’s tether,
For when humbly in Thy name,
Two or three are met together
Thou are in the midst of them;
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Touch we now Thy garment’s hem.
As the brethren used to gather
In the name of Christ to sup,
Then with thanks to God the Father
Break the bread and bless the cup,
Alleluia! Alleluia!

So knit Thou our friendship up.
All our meals and all our living
Make as sacraments of Thee,
That by caring, helping, giving
We may true disciples be.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
We will serve Thee faithfully.

Percy Dearmer (1867-1936), written 1931

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Father of all,
we give you thanks and praise, that when we were still far off
you met us in your Son and brought us home.
Dying and living,
he declared your love,
gave us grace
and opened the gate of glory.
May we who share Christ's body live his risen life;
we who drink his cup
bring life to others;
we whom the Spirit lights give light to the world.
Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us,
so we and all your children shall be free,
and the whole earth live to praise your name. Amen.

WORSHIP NOTES Much of the words of our worship today come from the New Zealand Prayer Book, with Alternative Great Thanksgiving D used for the Eucharistic Prayer. As you grow accustomed to using these words for our worship, you are encouraged to notice what grows within you. For the Lord's Prayer we pray for forgiveness of sins, rather than trespasses. As we break the bread we remember our oneness. The Eucharistic Prayer invites us to seek fulfillment in Christ's love, to reconcile and unite, and to find hope in our calling as followers of Jesus. We use these words of worship through the weeks of the summer as a reminder that we belong to a global church through the life and ministry of the Anglican Communion. As we enjoy the long days of summer light, sister churches in the southern hemisphere enter into the dark of winter; as we enjoy plenty in the Global North, our siblings in the Global South struggle for bread and justice. Though we are many, we are one body.

ALL GIVING

"When the silver offertory plate is passed to our pew on Sundays, most of us shake our head 'no'. Meaning: 'I have already given online,' or 'I don't have any cash and will give later' or maybe even just 'no.' Think for a minute about the message that sends to children, youth and those around us: 'I'm not giving.' Starting today, take the plate, pause, think of something or someone you will give abiding love to this week, and give a simple yes nod. Put a dollar or two in if you have it. Say 'Yes' to love." — Kathy Roberts

SUMMARY OF JUNE VESTRY MEETING

The Vestry met on Wednesday, June 25, 2025, at 4:30 PM.

Kate Stradtman opened the meeting and read a meditation from Melanie Hardin.

Sheldon Taylor provided the Treasurer's Update: noting that the balance sheet is in good shape and utility costs have decreased a bit recently due to the efforts to conserve energy in our buildings. He also reported that the annual audit of the church's financials is progressing smoothly.

Arjun Srinivasan, Chair of the Board of Covenant Community, provided a report on Covenant Community: He reviewed Covenant Community's three programs: the residential program (housing up to 12 men on our block); Recovery Resources of Atlanta-Midtown programming, which provides resources for addiction and sees approximately 1,200 people a month for resources; and the Sterne House, which is a transitional housing facility in Decatur. Arjun noted that Covenant Community's grant funding has been reduced by approximately $800,000, which is half of its annual budget and has forced a staffing restructuring. He encouraged participation in weekly dinners on Monday evenings with the men of Covenant Community and asked All Saints' to consider continuing its financial support at historic levels.

The Vestry established two new committees and a task force to continue the next phase of the Future of the Block work: A Block Development Steering Committee, a Capital Campaign Steering Committee and the Egleston Ministry Center Task Force (for the creation of a costed design for a new Egleston Ministry Center).

Simon reported on the major initiatives that are planned for the upcoming church program year and reviewed the proposed assignments for Vestry members on committees and task forces for the next year.

The meeting closed with prayer and was adjourned.
