Officiant Let us pray.

The First Lesson | Joel 2:23-32

O children of Zion, be glad and rejoice in the Lord your God;
for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain,
the early and the later rain, as before.
The threshing floors shall be full of grain,
the vats shall overflow with wine and oil.
I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter,
my great army, which I sent against you.
You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied,
and praise the name of the Lord your God, who has dealt wondrously with you.

And my people shall never again be put to shame.

You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the Lord, am your God and there is no other.
And my people shall never again be put to shame.
Then afterward
I will pour out my spirit on all flesh;
your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
your old men shall dream dreams,
and your young men shall see visions.
Even on the male and female slaves,
in those days, I will pour out my spirit.

I will show portents in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke. The sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the great and terrible day of the Lord comes. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved; for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those who escape, as the Lord has said, and among the survivors shall be those whom the Lord calls.

Reader	The Word of the Lord.
People	Thanks be to God.

Psalm 65:10-14 | Te decet hymnus | 11:15 a.m.

You care for the earth, give it water;
you fill it with riches.

Your river in heaven brims over to provide its grain.

Antiphon

And thus you provide for the earth;
you drench its furrows;
you level it, soften it with showers;
you bless its growth.

Antiphon

You crown the year with your goodness.
Abundance flows in your steps;
in the pastures of the wilderness it flows.

Antiphon

The hills are girded with joy,
the meadows covered with flocks,
the valleys are decked with wheat.

They shout for joy, yes, they sing.

Antiphon

Music: Michel Guimont

The Second Lesson | 2 Timothy 4:6-8,16-18

I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

At my first defense no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Gospel | Luke 18:9-14

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.' But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon | The Rev. Natosha Reid Rice

The people are seated at the preacher's invitation. A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

The Nicene Creed |

The people stand.

Officiant Let us affirm our faith using the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT There are many ways for you to participate in God's work in the world. At All Saints', we have over 100 active ministries, and you are invited to connect your passion with the needs of this parish, neighborhood, and global community. This week, we highlight our Pastoral Care Committee, six of our pastoral care ministries, and Respite Care Atlanta:

- Pastoral Care Committee thoughtfully considers how we, as a parish, might better serve those who are in need of pastoral care. This committee is comprised of the lay leaders from each of the pastoral care ministries as well as interested members at large.
- Bereavement Callers reach out to those who have recently lost a loved one to offer support and a comforting ear.
- Walking the Mourners Path is an 8-week program for those who have had someone dear to them die and is designed to teach participants about grief and to help them move into more joyful and purposeful living following loss.
- Mental Health Initiative is a program currently being developed in collaboration with the clergy to promote and support mental health of parishioners through educational classes, creation of support groups around shared concerns, and perhaps longer term initiatives including a peer-to-peer ministry.
- E-Care is an email-based ministry of prayer where members periodically receive an email and commit to praying for the need specified in the email.
- Nourish (formerly E-Meals) volunteers prepare meals to be delivered to parishioners and families in need. Volunteers, solicited through E-Care, deliver the meals when needed.
- Note Writers lift up parishioners in need by writing personal notes delivered by regular mail.
- Respite Care Atlanta is a 3rd party program offering activities for adults with cognitive challenges on Tuesday and Thursdays.

The Great Thanksgiving

Offertory Anthem |

"You are my God"

Bob Chilcott (b. 1955)

You are the light that guides my way,
You are the seeker when I stray,
You are my strength and my friend,
You are my God.

You are the peace that gives me calm,
You are the shelter from all harm,
You are my love and my sure light,
You are my God.

David Adam (b. 1936)

You are the presence when hope is gone,
You are with me, I am never alone,
You are the power that's always there,
You are my God beyond compare.

You are the one to whom I pray,
You are the Lord with me this day,
You are my strength to my life's end,
You are my God.

Eucharistic Prayer A |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

The celebrant offers a proper preface for the day.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus |

William Mathias (1934-1992)

organ

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,
God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry.

organ

Ho-san-na in the high-est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, Ho-san-na in the high-est.

Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and maker and of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, Almighty God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Savior. By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

Celebrant The gifts of God for the people of God. Whoever you are, wherever you are on your journey, you are welcome at this table.

All are welcome at God's table. You may receive communion by taking both the bread and wine or simply taking the bread if you do not wish to receive the wine. If you wish to receive a blessing instead, you may cross your arms over your chest. Gluten free bread is available.

Healing prayers are offered in the chapel during communion.

COMPOSER OF THE WEEK Born in 1929, Margaret Rizza only began to compose in 1997. Since then, she has become a major personality in the world of sacred choral music, with substantial sales of both her printed and recorded music, which includes chart topping Taizé chants. All this followed an illustrious career as an opera singer spanning 25 years. Her background as a professional opera singer profoundly influenced her shift to composing contemplative, meditative music, and her path also involved a spiritual reawakening. Her work combines the skills of a classically trained musician with a deeply personal, spiritual approach.

Ross Room and Zoom

In November, Novel Theology dives into the wild world of Good Omens, where the world is prophesied to end on Saturday. This Saturday. Just before dinner. Everything appears to be going according to divine plan, except for the interference of a fussy angel and a fast-living demon—both of whom have lived amongst Earth's mortals since The Beginning and have grown rather fond of the lifestyle. Contact Laura Trott for more information at lmtrrott@gmail.com.

SUMMARY OF SEPTEMBER VESTRY MEETING

The Vestry met on Wednesday, September 24, 2025, at 4:30 P.M.

Kate Stradtman opened the meeting, and Bill Sullivan provided a meditation.

Sheldon Taylor delivered the Treasurer's update. He reported that the annual audit of the church's 2024 financials had been completed and accepted by the Finance Committee. The Finance Committee expects the Church to finish 2025 within budget. Sheldon also reviewed several recent bequests that will be added to the All Saints' Endowment Fund.

Danny Johnson provided an update from the Building and Grounds Committee. He reviewed a number of ongoing maintenance projects for the church, chapel and other buildings on campus. Julie Lockhart updated the Vestry on pledges received to date for our 2026 Annual Canvass and reviewed the plan for videos, a phone-a-thon and the final home gathering for the Canvass.

The Vestry discussed the timing of the next step in the Future of the Block project—staffing of the Egleston Ministry Center Task Force, the engagement of an architect, and the creation of alternative plans for Egleston—one that incorporates the preservation of certain elements of Egleston, and the other for a completely new building, with projected costs of construction for each to allow for the assessment of the financial feasibility for each. In both cases, opportunities to honor the historic nature of the existing building will be considered. The Vestry discussed the need to ensure that any design adequately addresses the proposed uses for the building identified in the Future of the Block process. The Vestry agreed that this design work is required as a necessary next step to continue to make progress on the master plan approved and supported by the parish.

The meeting closed with prayer and was adjourned.

We're excited to get to know you, and to welcome you to this amazing community. You can use this QR code to help us stay in touch, or if you'd prefer pen and paper, you can fill out one of the visitor cards in the back of the pew and place it in the offering plate or hand it to a staff member.
