Collect of the Day |

Officiant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Officiant Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

The people are seated.

The First Lesson | Daniel 7:1-3,15-18

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another.

As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: "As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom for ever—for ever and ever."

Psalm 149 | Cantate Domino

O sing unto the Lord a new song
let the congregation of saints praise him.
Let Israel rejoice in him that made him and let the children of Sion be joyful in their King.
Let them praise his Name in the dance
let them sing praises unto him with tabret and harp.
For the Lord hath pleasure in his people and helpeth the meek hearted.
Let the saints be joyful with glory
let them rejoice in their beds.
Let the praises of God be in their mouth
and a two-edged sword in their hands;

To be avenged of the heathen
and to rebuke the people;
To bind their kings in chains
and their nobles with links of iron.
That they may be avenged of them, as it is written
Such honor have all his saints.

Antiphon

Music: Charles Villiers Stanford (1852-1924)

The Second Lesson | Ephesians 1:11-23

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Sequence Hymn |

The people stand.

"I sing a song of the saints of God"

Grand Isle

1. I sing a song of the saints of God, pa-tient and brave and true,
2. They loved their Lord so dear, so dear, and his love made them strong;
3. They lived not on-ly in a-ges past, there are hund-reds of thou-sands still, who toiled and fought and lived and died for the Lord they loved and knew.
and they fol-lowed the right, for Je-sus' sake, the whole of their good lives long.
the world is bright with the joy-ous saints who love to do Je-sus' will.
And one was a doc-tor and one was a queen,
And one was a sold-ier, and one was a priest,
You can meet them in school, or in lanes, or at sea, and one was a shep-herd-ess on the green: they were and one was slain by a fierce wild-beast: and there's in church, or in trains, or in shops, or at tea, for the all of them saints of God, and I mean, God help-ing, to be one too.
not an-y rea-son no, not the least, why I should-n't be one too.
saints of God are just folk like me, and I mean to be one too.

Music: John Henry Hopkins (1861-1945)

Words: Lesbia Scott (1898-1986), alt.

The Gospel | Luke 6:20-31

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus looked up at his disciples and said:

“Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

“Blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you will be filled.

“Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

“Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.”

“But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation.

“Woe to you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

“Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you will mourn and weep.

“Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

“But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon | The Rev. Dr. Simon J. Mainwaring

The people are seated at the preacher’s invitation. A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

The Nicene Creed |

The people stand.

Officiant Let us affirm our faith using the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People |

The people stand or kneel for the prayers.

Intercessor Loving God, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
People That we all may be one.

Intercessor Grant that every member of your Church may truly and humbly serve you.
People That your name may be glorified by all people.

Intercessor We give thanks for the mission of the church, especially The Church of England, St. Gregory the Great Church in Athens, and for all the saints of this parish, past and present, who inspire and strengthen our common life as a church.

Intercessor We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
People That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and sacraments.

Intercessor We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world.
People That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

*When there is a new birth, "We give thanks for the birth of N."
The people may add their own thanksgivings.*

Intercessor Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
People That our works may find favor in your sight.

Intercessor I ask your prayers for those who are sick.
The names of those who are sick are read aloud. The people may add their own petitions.

Intercessor Lord, have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
People That they may be delivered from their distress.

Intercessor I ask your prayers for those who have died.
The names of those who have died are read aloud. The people may add their own petitions.

Intercessor Lord, give to the departed eternal rest;
People Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Intercessor We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
People May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Officiant

Lord, hear the prayers of your people: and what we have asked faithfully, grant that we may obtain effectually, to the glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Reading of the Names of the Departed |

Rector

We pray for all who have been buried from this church in the past year.

A bell is tolled after each name is read.

Anthem |

"Crossing the bar"

C. Hubert H. Parry (1848-1918)

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

Alfred Lord Tennyson

Confession |

The people stand.

Officiant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Officiant and People

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace |

The people stand.

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The people greet one another with a sign of God's peace. The people are seated at the Rector's invitation.

The Great Thanksgiving

Offertory Anthem |

“Give us the wings of faith”

Ernest Bullock (1890–1979)

Give us the wings of faith to rise
Within the veil, and see
The Saints above, how great their joys,
How bright their glories be.

They marked the footsteps that He trod,
His zeal inspired their breast;
And following their incarnate God
They reached the promised rest.

We ask them, whence their victory came
They with one united breath
Ascribe the conquest to the Lamb
Their triumph to His death.

Isaac Watts (1674–1748)

Presentation Hymn |

Thanksgiving for Our Annual Pledges |

Rector

Lord God of creation, we give you thanks for all the blessings of this life. We offer these pledges of our commitment to your glory and for the life and mission of this, your church. May these pledges be a sign of your kingdom where your justice and peace may reign upon the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer A |

Celebrant
The Lord be with you.

People
And al - so with you.

Celebrant
Lift up your hearts.

People
We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

The celebrant offers a proper preface for the day.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus |

William Mathias (1934-1992)

organ
Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,
God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry.
organ Ho-san-na in the high-est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, Ho-san-na in the high - est.

Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and maker and of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, Almighty God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Savior. By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

Celebrant The gifts of God for the people of God. Whoever you are, wherever you are on your journey, you are welcome at this table.

All are welcome at God's table. You may receive communion by taking both the bread and wine or simply taking the bread if you do not wish to receive the wine. If you wish to receive a blessing instead, you may cross your arms over your chest. Gluten free bread is available.

Healing prayers are offered in the chapel during communion.

Agnus Dei |

Mass of All Saints', Daniel Knaggs (b. 1983)

Lamb of God, You take a-way the sins of the world, have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, You take a-way the sins of the world, have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, You take a-way the sins of the world, grant us peace, grant us peace.

Communion Anthem |

"In paradisum" from Requiem

Gabriel Fauré (1845-1924)

*In paradisum deducant angeli:
in tuo adventu suscipiant te martyres,
et perducant te in civitatem sanctam Jerusalem.
Chorus angelorum te suscipiat,
et cum Lazaro quondam paupere,

May the angels lead you into paradise:
may the martyrs receive you as you arrive,
and bring you into the holy city of Jerusalem.
May the choir of angels receive you,
and with Lazarus, once a beggar,
may you have eternal rest.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing |

Celebrant

May God, who kindled the fire of love in the hearts of all the saints, pour into your hearts the richness of grace. Amen.

May God give you joy in their fellowship and a share in their praises. Amen.

May God strengthen you to follow them in the way of holiness and to come to the full radiance of glory. Amen.

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

"Maestoso" from Symphony No. 3 "Organ Symphony"

Camille Saint-Saens (1835-1921)

The All Saints' Festival Brass
 Justin Maxey, organ
 Nicholas Greeson, piano

COMPOSER OF THE WEEK French composer, Gabriel Fauré is regarded as one of the greatest masters of art song. His contribution to the genre has impacted countless other artists in the twentieth century. As a composer of sacred music, Fauré's output is significantly smaller, totaling only eight opuses, among them the popular Requiem, Op. 48. Between the ages of thirty-five and forty-five, Fauré struggled with depression. Although he enjoyed a rather successful career, a broken engagement caused his personal life to become unstable, ultimately impacting his output as a composer. This week marks the first inclusion of music from the Fauré Requiem; the entire work will be performed in concert by our combined choirs in March.

In Our Prayers

In our Anglican Cycle of Prayer, we give thanks and pray for the people and clergy of The Church of England.
In our diocese, we give thanks and pray for the people and clergy of St. Gregory the Great Episcopal Church in Athens.
In our parish, we pray for all the saints of this parish, past and present, who inspire and strengthen our common life as a church.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sunday, November 2, 2025 — The Twenty-First Sunday after Pentecost

THIS SUNDAY

- 8:00 a.m. Holy Eucharist Rite I (Traditional Language, no music)
- 9:00 a.m. Holy Eucharist Rite II (Contemporary Language, choral music)
- 11:15 a.m. Holy Eucharist Rite II (Contemporary Language, choral music)
- 5:00 p.m. The Welcome Table (Contemporary Language, music)

ANNOUNCEMENT: The live stream of our Sunday worship services is now available at allsaintsatlanta.org/live and on youtube.com/@AllSaintsATL. Feel free to join us via your preferred platform and be sure to give us a follow!

PARKING: Overflow parking is available at the Bank of America—please enter on North Ave. Get a validation ticket upon entry. Please request an additional validation ticket from an usher in the church narthex upon arrival or exit. Use both validation tickets upon exiting the Bank of America parking deck to park free of charge. The lot at The Varsity is under new management and is no longer available for parking. Ticketing and towing are being enforced. On Sundays, street parking is free.

NURSERY: Our nursery is open for children, ages birth through Pre-K, 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Join Us for Sunday Breakfast — Sunday Breakfast, 7:45 a.m. – 8:45 a.m., Ellis Hall

Come join us! Meet new families, reconnect with friends, and enjoy a delicious meal together.

Cost: $12 for adults & $7 for children.

All Saints Sunday Celebration — Sunday, November 2, 9:00 a.m. – 12:45 p.m., Church and Ellis Hall

Join us for our annual celebration of All Saints Sunday. We will enjoy beautiful music at the 9:00 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. services and remember in prayer all those who have been buried from this church over the past year. Following the 9:00 a.m. service, you are invited to Ellis Hall for a Taste of All Saints' where there will be great food and an opportunity for fellowship. For more information, please contact Marcia Mayfield mmayfield@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Out of the Darkness Walk for Suicide Prevention — Sunday, November 2, 2:00 p.m., the Meadow in Piedmont Park

Join All Saints' in a 2-mile walk to support suicide prevention, organized by the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention. All Saints' will join other faith communities under the banner "Step Out & Speak Up: Faith Communities Uniting for Suicide Prevention." Faith communities play a unique role in prevention by creating spaces of belonging, reducing stigma, offering spiritual support, and equipping leaders to recognize and respond to warning signs. If interested, please contact parishioner Liza Johnston at lizajohnston@comcast.net.

Jesus on the Front Page — Sundays, 10:30 a.m. – 11:15 a.m., Parish House P307

In this weekly Sunday morning discussion of a current news story, participants reflect on how we are called to live as faithful people. In a nonpartisan reflection, we explore how we might be called to pray differently, think differently or act differently in our private and public lives. Email Clark Lemons clemons@emory.edu if you have questions!

Threads Coat Drive — Sundays starting October 19 – Sunday, November 23, Ellis Foyer

Join us in spreading love and comfort by providing a new or gently used coat for a child in need. Each coat is more than fabric — it's a hug, a smile, and a reminder that someone cares. Bring coats (sizes newborn to 18) to Threads at All Saints' Episcopal Church or make a donation and we'll shop for you. Barrels will be available in the Ellis Hall Foyer for drop off. For more information contact threads@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Emergency Food Drive for MAC — Sundays, November 2, 9, 16, Donation Drop off in Lobby of Ellis Hall

On November 1, nearly 1.4 million Georgians will lose access to their SNAP benefits. Midtown Assistance Center (MAC) operates a food pantry in the heart of Atlanta, serving hardworking families and vulnerable community members in over ten zip codes. Help MAC respond to the loss of access by donating items listed in this link, <https://bit.ly/MACEmergencyFoodDrive>. For more information, contact Wendy Silliman at wendelin.silliman@troutman.com.

The Welcome Table: Sunday Evening Worship Service and Dinner — Sundays at 5:00 p.m., Chapel and Ellis Hall

We invite you to come to The Welcome Table, a service with singing, communion and Prayer accompanied by The Welcome Table Jazz combo. A community dinner for all participants follows the service in Ellis Hall.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PLEDGES!

We're so grateful to everyone who has already made a 2026 pledge, thank you!

Your generosity helps All Saints' continue to be a place of welcome, worship, and love in the heart of the city. If you haven't had a chance to pledge yet, there's still time to join in. Every gift matters and makes a difference.

WORSHIP & MUSIC

The Inaugural Concert of the All Saints' Choral

Thursday, November 6, 7:00 p.m., Church

You are cordially invited to an evening of sacred choral masterworks, featuring music by Parry, Franck, Schubert, Jane Marshall, Richard Smallwood, and others. This grand inaugural program promises to stir the soul and lift the spirit within the hallowed walls of historic All Saints'.

Jazz Vocalist Nnenna Freelon Graces the Next

Jazz at All Saints' Concert

Friday, November 14, 7:00 p.m., Church

Recently named by Downbeat Magazine the standout performer at this year's Monterey Jazz Festival, vocalist Nnenna Freelon brings her artistry and elegance to our next concert. Her latest album, Beneath the Skin, a master class in quiet wisdom and emotional connection, continues to rank high on jazz charts. Tickets to her concert ($25/adult, $15 student) are selling fast, so get yours now at allsaintsatlanta.org/jazz.

ADULT FORMATION

The Journey Bible Study — Mondays, 11:00 a.m., Zoom

Chapter by chapter, book by book, we are learning together about what the Scripture really says according to the best scholarship of today. Currently, we are reading Second Kings, with a side glance at the writings of the prophets of the time. All are welcome. To join the group, email The Rev. Karen Evans at kevans@allsaintsatlanta.org.

#KellyonMyMind: Reflection on Anti-Death Penalty Advocacy and a Meaningful Life

Saturday, November 8, 1:00 - 5:30 pm,

Candler School of Theology, Room RORB 102

All Saints' parishioners are invited to an afternoon that marks the 10th anniversary of the execution of Kelly Gissendanner, where we will reflect on her theological studies and the faith-based advocacy done on her behalf. The first panel will focus on anti-death penalty advocacy in Georgia and beyond. The second panel will focus on theologies that ground Christian resistance and will be in conversation with Jenny McBride's book, You Shall Not Condemn: A Story of Faith and Advocacy on Death Row. Contact Jenny McBride for more information at jmcbride@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Faith and Justice Collective Luncheon. Migrant God: A Christian Vision for Immigrant Justice with Isaac Villegas
Sunday, November 9, 12:30 p.m. - 2:15 p.m., Ellis Hall

Join us in November for a presentation by Isaac Villegas, an ordained minister in the Mennonite Church USA who is involved in the work of community organizing and activism for immigrant justice. We will be reading Villegas's book, Migrant God, for our Advent One Parish One Book discussion, so come get to know the author first! Please register in advance at https://bit.ly/faithandjustice_nov and contact Jenny McBride with questions at jmcbride@allsaintstalanta.org.

Growing as a Community of Care: Mental Health 101
Sunday, November 16, 10:30 a.m. - 11:15 a.m., Ellis Hall
Join Skyland Trails Chief Medical Officer, Dr. Ben Hunter, for a presentation on how genetic predisposition and environmental stressors contribute to mental health conditions. By increasing awareness and understanding, this session aims to reduce stigma and provide practical tools for supporting mental well-being as a church-community. For more information, contact Jenny McBride at jmcbride@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Women's Health and Spirituality Luncheon
Sunday, November 16, 12:30 p.m. - 2:00 p.m., Ellis Hall
We welcome women of all ages and stages of life to join us for the second of this two-part series as we explore the relationship between health and spirituality in our lives. Parishioners and women's health providers Jenny Lyman MD and Amy Gaynor WHNP will help us explore the mysteries and changes of our bodies throughout our lives. To register for a $16 lunch, please go to https://bit.ly/womens_health_luncheon. For more information, contact Wendy Little at littlewendoo@gmail.com.

Novel Theology:
Good Omens by Terry Pratchett and Neil Gaiman
Wednesday, November 19, 7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m., Ross Room and Zoom
In November, Novel Theology dives into the wild world of Good Omens, where the world is prophesied to end on Saturday. This Saturday. Just before dinner. Everything appears to be going according to divine plan, except for the interference of a fussy angel and a fast-living demon—both of whom have lived amongst Earth's mortals since The Beginning and have grown rather fond of the lifestyle. All Saints' is looking for a Parish Gardener

If you or someone you know has a green thumb and loves to be outdoors through the year, you may be interested to know that All Saints' is looking to hire a part-time parish gardener in the new year who would tend to our grounds and care for them as a place of beauty and renewal for the parish and the city. For more information please contact our rector, Simon Mainwaring: smainwaring@allsaintsatlanta.org.

SUMMARY OF SEPTEMBER VESTRY MEETING

The Vestry met on Wednesday, September 24, 2025, at 4:30 P.M.

Kate Stradtman opened the meeting, and Bill Sullivan provided a meditation.

Sheldon Taylor delivered the Treasurer's update. He reported that the annual audit of the church's 2024 financials had been completed and accepted by the Finance Committee. The Finance Committee expects the Church to finish 2025 within budget. Sheldon also reviewed several recent bequests that will be added to the All Saints' Endowment Fund.

Danny Johnson provided an update from the Building and Grounds Committee. He reviewed a number of ongoing maintenance projects for the church, chapel and other buildings on campus. Julie Lockhart updated the Vestry on pledges received to date for our 2026 Annual Canvass and reviewed the plan for videos, a phone-a-thon and the final home gathering for the Canvass.

The Vestry discussed the timing of the next step in the Future of the Block project—staffing of the Egleston Ministry Center Task Force, the engagement of an architect, and the creation of alternative plans for Egleston—one that incorporates the preservation of certain elements of Egleston, and the other for a completely new building, with projected costs of construction for each to allow for the assessment of the financial feasibility for each. In both cases, opportunities to honor the historic nature of the existing building will be considered. The Vestry discussed the need to ensure that any design adequately addresses the proposed uses for the building identified in the Future of the Block process. The Vestry agreed that this design work is required as a necessary next step to continue to make progress on the master plan approved and supported by the parish.

The meeting closed with prayer and was adjourned.
