The Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany
February 8, 2026

Collect of the Day |

Officiant The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Officiant Let us pray.

Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins and give us, we beseech thee, the liberty of that abundant life which thou hast manifested to us in thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

The First Lesson | Isaiah 58:1-9a

Shout out, do not hold back!

 Lift up your voice like a trumpet!

Announce to my people their rebellion,
 to the house of Jacob their sins.

Yet day after day they seek me

 and delight to know my ways,

as if they were a nation that practiced righteousness

 and did not forsake the ordinance of their God;

they ask of me righteous judgments,

 they delight to draw near to God.

“Why do we fast, but you do not see?

 Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?”

Look, you serve your own interest on your fast day,

 and oppress all your workers.

Look, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to strike with a wicked fist.

Such fasting as you do today

 will not make your voice heard on high.

Is such the fast that I choose,

 a day to humble oneself?

Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush,

 and to lie in sackcloth and ashes?

Will you call this a fast,

 a day acceptable to the Lord?

Is not this the fast that I choose:

 to loose the bonds of injustice,

to undo the thongs of the yoke,
to let the oppressed go free,
and to break every yoke?
Is it not to share your bread with the hungry,
and bring the homeless poor into your house;
when you see the naked, to cover them,
and not to hide yourself from your own kin?
Then your light shall break forth like the dawn,
and your healing shall spring up quickly;
your vindicator shall go before you,
the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard.
Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer;
you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The Second Lesson | 1 Corinthians 2:1-12

When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come proclaiming the mystery of God to you in lofty words or wisdom. For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. And I came to you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. My speech and my proclamation were not with plausible words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God.

Yet among the mature we do speak wisdom, though it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to perish. But we speak God's wisdom, secret and hidden, which God decreed before the ages for our glory. None of the rulers of this age understood this; for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. But, as it is written,

“What no eye has seen, nor ear heard,
nor the human heart conceived,
what God has prepared for those who love him”—

these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. For what human being knows what is truly human except the human spirit that is within? So also no one comprehends what is truly God's except the Spirit of God. Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit that is from God, so that we may understand the gifts bestowed on us by God.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The Gospel | Matthew 5:13-20

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, “You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled under foot.

“You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.

“Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished. Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.”

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise be to thee, O Christ.

SHINING IN THE CITY

Help Us Continue Shining in the City

As we continue to move into the new year, we give thanks for the generosity that sustained All Saints' ministries throughout 2025. Your faithful giving makes a real difference in our worship, outreach, and community life.

Still considering your 2026 pledge?

If you have not yet made a pledge for 2026, we warmly invite you to do so. Every pledge, at every level, helps All Saints' continue to shine as a place of welcome, service, and hope in the city.

The image shows a template for a pledge card. It features a decorative border with a dashed line and a small pair of scissors icon in the top-left corner. Inside the border, there is a circular graphic with the text "SHINING IN THE CITY" and a stylized illustration of a city skyline made of various shapes. Below this graphic, the text "2026 ALL SAINTS' ANNUAL CANVASS" is printed. To the right of the graphic, the text "PLEDGE / COMMITMENT CARD" is centered. Below this, there are four lines for填写个人信息: "Name _____", "Email _____", "Cell # _____", and "For 2026 I/we commit a total of _____ $ _____". To the right of these lines is a QR code. At the bottom of the card, the text "To pledge, scan the QR code above or cut out this card and place it in the offering basket. Thank you for your generosity!" is printed.

Thank you for supporting the mission and life of All Saints' as we enter a new year together.

Have you fulfilled your 2025 pledge?

If you have a remaining balance on your 2025 pledge, there is still time to fulfill it. If you aren't sure, you can check with Betsey Gibbs bgibbs@allsaintsatlanta.org. Completing your pledge helps ensure that last year's ministries are fully supported as planned.

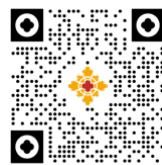

All Saints' offers other easy ways to pay your pledge or to make a gift:

Give online: allsaintsatlanta.org/give

Mail a check: to All Saints' Church, 634 W. Peachtree St., Atlanta, GA 30308

During Services: put a check, cash, or the tear-out card in the offering plate

QR code: one-time gifts

Direct Electronic Transfer: gift stocks and securities

Sunday, February 15, 9:00 a.m. & 11:15 a.m., Church

The trebles of our Adult Choir will be joined by the Singing Sisters of Ebenezer Baptist Church, led by director and soloist Laura English Robinson. The two choral anthems will be joyful Gospel pieces, and Laura will present a solo during communion.

ADULT FORMATION

The School of the Spirit:

The Purpose and Practice of Prayer

Wednesdays, Feb 25, March 4, 11, 18 & 25, 6:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m., P305/306 or Zoom

Taught by Rev. Jenny McBride, this 5-week course examines prayer as friendship with God; petitionary prayer for oneself and others; praying with scripture, discernment through prayer; and prayer through movement. Each session will include a workshop where we practice prayer or create tools that might help us pray. It is intended for everyone — seasoned, beginning, or unsure — as we learn from each other's experiences. Email Jenny McBride for the Zoom link at jmcbride@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Novel Theology

Wednesday, February 11, 7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.,

P201 or Zoom

The Man in the Wooden Hat, the second novel in the Old Filth trilogy, tells the story of Filth and Betty's marriage, this time from Betty's perspective. Join us as we discuss a portrait of a marriage, with all the bittersweet secrets and surprising fulfillment of the fifty-year union of two remarkable people. Email Laura Trott at Lmtrott@gmail.com for more information.

St. Hildegard's New 20s and 30s Women's Chapter

Forming — First meeting Sunday, February 15,

6:30 p.m. – 8:00 p.m., Ross Room

Women in their 20s and 30s are invited to join a new women's chapter forming at All Saints'. We will gather for our first event with wine, cheese, and a flower bouquet workshop led by parishioner and verger Alvin Moore. To register for the workshop, register at <https://bit.ly/sthchapter> and for more information contact Elizabeth Beck at ebeck.uga@gmail.com or Ani Hildebrandt at anihildebrandt93@gmail.com.

Jesus on the Front Page - Don't Miss Our Guest Speakers

Sundays, February 15 & 22, 10:30 a.m. – 11:15 a.m., P307

All are welcome to join the class for the next two Sundays as we welcome two Christians who work under the Gold Dome in the city of Atlanta: parishioner Mary Margaret Oliver will lead the discussion on Feb 15; and parishioner and Senator Elena Parent will be our guest on Feb 22. Contact Clark Lemons at clemons@emory.edu.

The Vocation of Faith Series: Accepting God's Call...

To Plant, with Parishioner Sam Martinez

Sundays, February 15 & 22, 10:30 a.m. - 11:05 a.m., Ellis Hall

The Sunday morning Vocation of Faith Series focuses on the various ways God calls us to be more fully human. In this series, parishioner-presenters will share how the practice helps us grow closer to God or helps us be the people God intends us to be. For more information contact Rev. Jenny McBride at jmcbride@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Lenten Devotional Materials for Home

Available Sunday, February 15

All parishioners are invited to pick up and use the Lenten devotional for all ages, Tell Me Some Good News, available in the Narthex, Lobby of Ellis Hall, and 2nd Floor of Pritchett. For more information contact Rev. Jenny McBride at jmcbride@allsaintsatlanta.org.

The Journey Bible Study — Mondays, 11:00 a.m., Zoom

Chapter by chapter, book by book, we are learning together about what the Scripture really says according to the best scholarship of today. Having read the prophet Amos, we will now begin the prophet Hosea, who reflects on the same period. All are welcome. To join the group, contact Karen Evans at kevans@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Lenten One Parish, One Book Read

Sundays, March 1, 8, 15 & 22, 10:30 a.m. – 11:05 a.m.

Threads Performing Arts Camp: Volunteers Needed!

We are excited to host our 2nd Annual Threads Performing Arts Camp, June 8–12, 2026, from 8:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

This camp provides a safe, enriching summer experience for the children Threads serves, inviting them to explore the arts in a supportive and joyful environment. Planning is underway, and we are inviting more of the parish to partner in ministry at the camp this year. Volunteer opportunities include:

- Assisting with meals and snacks
- Classroom assistants to teaching artists
- Supervising students
- Reading to students
- Other supportive duties throughout the day

There are many ways to serve, and your time and presence will make a meaningful difference for our campers.

To volunteer, please follow the QR Code to the SignUpGenius, or email Emily Halbert at ehalbert@allsaintsatlanta.org or Marcia Mayfield at mmayfield@allsaintsatlanta.org

Threads Welcomes Families For Shopping

At Threads, every Thursday and Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., our doors open wide to welcome families for in-store shopping — not just for clothing, but for a sense of comfort, dignity, and a renewed sense of hope and joy. If you've ever wanted to make a meaningful difference, this is your invitation. Whether you can spend a few hours or come regularly, your presence matters. You'll be part of a beautiful mission that wraps families in love.

There are many ways that you can help Threads Kids

SUMMARY OF JANUARY VESTRY MEETING

The Vestry met on Wednesday, January 28, 2026, at 4:30 P.M.

Simon opened the meeting with prayer, and Amelia Baker delivered the meditation.

Sheldon Taylor delivered the Treasurer's update. He reported on the pre-paid pledges received for 2026 and reviewed the Church's balance sheet and P&L statement. One highlight is the strong financial support for our Threads ministry by the Parish in December.

Simon reviewed national trends in the Episcopal Church on financial giving, average Sunday worship attendance, and increasing operating expenses, all of which support All Saints' work to redevelop the Block and ultimately secure new revenue streams to ensure the long-term vitality of our church.

Sheldon Taylor, Chair of the Block Development Steering Committee, reporting on a recent committee meeting, and Mark Diedrich, member of the Egleston Task Force, reviewed the project milestones and timeline for the implementation of the master plan as it pertains to the Egleston Building. He noted that six architect firms had responded to the RFP and four were interviewed. The Egleston Task Force recommended the engagement of Perkins & Will based on the firm's qualifications and experience, particularly with adaptive reuse projects. The Vestry approved this engagement, including a Preservation Report addressing our desire to honor the historic nature of our campus.

The meeting closed with prayer and was adjourned.
