Leader Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose blessed Son was led by the Spirit to be tempted by Satan: Come quickly to help us who are assaulted by many temptations; and, as you know the weaknesses of each of us, let each one find you mighty to save; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Lesson | Genesis 2:15-17; 3:1-7

The Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and keep it. And the Lord God commanded the man, "You may freely eat of every tree of the garden; but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall die." Now the serpent was more crafty than any other wild animal that the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, "Did God say, 'You shall not eat from any tree in the garden?'" The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden; but God said, 'You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden, nor shall you touch it, or you shall die.'" But the serpent said to the woman, "You will not die; for God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate; and she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate. Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.

The Second Lesson | Romans 5:12-19

As sin came into the world through one man, and death came through sin, and so death spread to all because all have sinned-- sin was indeed in the world before the law, but sin is not reckoned when there is no law. Yet death exercised dominion from Adam to Moses, even over those whose sins were not like the transgression of Adam, who is a type of the one who was to come. But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died through the one man's trespass, much more surely have the grace of God and the free gift in the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abounded for the many. And the free gift is not like the effect of the one man's sin. For the judgment following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brings justification. If, because of the one man's trespass, death exercised dominion through that one, much more surely will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness exercise dominion in life through the one man, Jesus Christ. Therefore just as one man's trespass led to condemnation for all, so one man's act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all. For just as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous.

The Gospel | Matthew 4:1-11

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. He fasted forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was famished. The tempter came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread." But he answered, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.'" Then the devil took him to the holy city and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down; for it is written, 'He will command his angels concerning you,' and 'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.'" Jesus said to him, "Again it is written, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'" Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor; and he said to him, "All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me." Jesus said to him, "Away with you, Satan! for it is written, 'Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.'" Then the devil left him, and suddenly angels came and waited on him.

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon | The Rev. Dr. Simon J. Mainwaring

The people are seated at the preacher's invitation.
A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

The Nicene Creed |

The people stand.

Officiant Let us affirm our faith using the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living
and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped
and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism
for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen

Eucharistic Prayer G |

Celebrant
The Lord be with you.

People
And al - so with you.

Celebrant
Lift up your hearts.

People
We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant

Blessed are you, Lord God, our light and our salvation; to you be glory and praise for ever. From the beginning you have created all things and all your works echo the music of your praise. In the fullness of time you made us in your image, the crown of all creation. You give us breath and speech, that with angels and archangels and all the powers of heaven we may find a voice to sing your praise:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry, Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
 Ho - san - na in the high - est, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues

How wonderful the work of your hands, O Lord. As a mother tenderly gathers her children, you embraced a people as your own. When they turned away and rebelled your love remained steadfast. From them you raised up Jesus our Savior, born of Mary, to be the living bread, in whom all our hungers are satisfied. He offered his life for sinners, and with a love stronger than death he opened wide his arms on the cross.

On the night before he died, he came to supper with his friends and, taking bread, he gave you thanks. He broke it and gave it to them, saying: Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me.

At the end of supper, taking the cup of wine, he gave you thanks, and said: Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me. Therefore, according to his command, O God,

Celebrant and People

Dying you destroyed our death,

Rising you restored our life:

Lord Jesus, come in glory.

The Celebrant continues

Loving God, we plead with confidence his sacrifice made once for all upon the cross; we remember his dying and rising in glory, and we rejoice that he intercedes for us at your right hand.

Pour out your Holy Spirit as we bring before you these gifts of your creation; may they be for us the body and blood of your dear Son. As we eat and drink these holy gifts in your presence, form us in the likeness of Christ, and build us into a living temple to your glory.

Bring us at the last with all the saints to the vision of that eternal splendor for which you have created us; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, by whom, with whom, and in whom, with all who stand before you in earth and heaven, we worship you, O God, in songs of everlasting praise:

Blessing and honor and glory and power be yours forever and ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer |
All Saints' Youth and Junior Choirs

Our God, in heaven, holy is your name,
your reign come, your will done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread, and help us forgive, as we have been forgiven.
In the time of trial lead us into light,
for yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever.
Our God, in heaven, holy is your name, holy is your name. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

Thomas Keesecker (b. 1956)

Let us pray for peace, for the healing of creation.
 May God's truth and justice mend ev'ry breach; may we learn to live as one.
 Let us pray for love, for the grace to offer mercy.
 May compassion guide our way in the world, may forgiveness heal division.
 May forgiveness heal us all.

Worship Note:

During the season of Lent, we take an opportunity to slow down. We incorporate sung prayer throughout the service, seeking to contemplate the beauty of holiness together. You will notice musical settings of the prayers of the people, the Lord's prayer, the great Amen at the end of the Eucharist, and the creed (at 11:15). We also highlight the confession and forgiveness of sins, as repentance is a theological theme of the season. Lent might be considered a journey, modeled on Jesus' 40 days in the wilderness, Moses and Israel's 40-year sojourn toward promised land, and indeed on the journey of our own lives. We are each invited into a 40-day discipline that cultivates a posture of worship and adoration. How might God be inviting you, therefore, into the observance of a holy Lent?

A Lenten Musical Note:

Early Christians observed "a season of penitence and fasting" in preparation for the Paschal feast, or Easter (The Book of Common Prayer, pp. 264-265). We are invited "to the observance of a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God's holy Word" (BCP p. 265). We also experience a sort of liturgical fasting, relinquishing some of the more joyous acclamations such as the singing of "Alleluia" and the Gloria in excelsis. We also refrain from our celebratory organ postludes.

Throughout this holy season, we will also experience some new musical elements in our services. At both 9 and 11:15 we will sing the Lord's Prayer to a simple monotone, allowing the organ and choir to support the congregation through a beautiful harmonization by Owen Burdick, former Director of Music at Trinity Church, Wall Street. Our congregational service music (Kyrie, Sanctus, Agnus Dei) will feature the New Plainsong setting by African American composer David Hurd, Director of Music at St. Mary the Virgin, Times Square. We will also sing McNeil Robinson's Great Amen at the conclusion of the Eucharistic Prayer. At our 11:15 service, the Schola will offer movements from William Byrd's Mass for Four Voices, one of the most important works of the English Renaissance. Our plainsong psalm settings will be printed in the bulletin for all to sing. And finally, we are invited to join together in Calvin Hampton's gorgeous setting of the Nicene Creed. Director of Music at Calvary Church, Manhattan, Hampton produced a large amount of music specifically for the Episcopal Church's Hymnal 1982 before his tragic death of AIDS in 1984.

So while the focus of Lent is often on self-denial, we hope you will appreciate these musical additions, a celebration of our Anglican musical heritage from the Renaissance to the present day.

Worship & Music

Lenten Worship Opportunities

- Stations of the Cross: During the whole season of Lent, you are invited to contemplate the 14 original paintings in the Sanctuary, which our church commissioned from local artists. The stations of the cross trace Jesus' final hours, from Pilate's quarters to the Cross, and the church remains open for prayer after each service.

Easter Flower Donations

At Easter we celebrate Jesus' glorious resurrection. Our tradition is to adorn our altars and worship spaces with a bountiful collection of spring flowers. This is possible by your generous offering. Remember a loved one or give thanks for someone special or God's other blessings, by donating online here or in person in the courtyard between the 9 and 11:15 services by Sunday, March 12. These will be acknowledged in the Easter bulletin. For more information, contact Alvin Moore at alvin-moore@comcast.net.

All Saints' Choral Scholar Jacob McDonald, in concert
Saturday, March 4, 7:30 p.m.

The program, "Story and Song," includes excerpts from some of the greatest poets and storytellers, including Goethe and George Herbert, in works by Handel, Wolf, Ravel, and Vaughan Williams. Jacob will be joined by GSU choral ensemble Voces Amicis, accompanied by organists Brendan Conner and Dr. Kirk M. Rich. The concert is free and open to the public.
