Collect of the Day |

Officiant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Officiant Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread:
 Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

The First Lesson | Acts 2:14a, 36-41

Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd, "Let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified."

Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, "Brothers, what should we do?" Peter said to them, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him." And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

Psalm | 116:1-3, 10-17 Dilexi, quoniam

Sung by the choir.

1 I love the Lord, because he has heard the voice of my supplication, * because he has inclined his ear to me whenever I called upon him.

2 The cords of death entangled me;
the grip of the grave took hold of me; *
I came to grief and sorrow.

3 Then I called upon the Name of the Lord: *
"O Lord, I pray you, save my life."

10 How shall I repay the Lord *
for all the good things he has done for me?

11 I will lift up the cup of salvation *
and call upon the Name of the Lord.

12 I will fulfill my vows to the Lord *
in the presence of all his people.

13 Precious in the sight of the Lord * is the death of his servants.

14 O Lord, I am your servant; *
I am your servant and the child of your handmaid;
you have freed me from my bonds.

15 I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving *
and call upon the Name of the Lord.

16 I will fulfill my vows to the Lord *
in the presence of all his people,

17 In the courts of the Lord's house, *
in the midst of you, O Jerusalem.
Hallelujah!

The Second Lesson | 1 Peter 1:17-23

If you invoke as Father the one who judges all people impartially according to their deeds, live in reverent fear during the time of your exile. You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish. He was destined before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of the ages for your sake. Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are set on God.

Now that you have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth so that you have genuine mutual love, love one another deeply from the heart. You have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Gospel | Luke 24:13-35

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Now on that same day two of Jesus' disciples were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?" He asked them, "What things?" They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him." Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?" That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!" Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon | The Rev. Christopher Chase

The people are seated at the preacher's invitation.
A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

The Nicene Creed |

The people stand.

Officiant Let us affirm our faith using the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism
for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People |

The people stand or kneel for the prayers.

Intercessor Grace to you and peace from Jesus Christ, the firstborn of the dead. The Lord has acted;
let us rejoice and be glad, saying, "You are our God;
People and we thank you."

Intercessor Almighty God, you have given your Church the ministry of reconciliation: grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ's Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith. You are our God;
People and we thank you.

Intercessor Ruler of the kings of the earth, Lord Jesus, your word is a word of peace: speak forth salvation in a weary world. You are our God;
People and we thank you.

Intercessor All you do, O Lord, is marvelous in our eyes: give us a respect for all you have made.
[Thanksgivings will be read aloud]. You are our God;
People and we thank you.

Intercessor Mighty Savior, raise up faithful witnesses in our community, that our neighbors might come to know that you love them and have freed them from the power of sin. In the Anglican Communion, we pray for The Anglican Church of South America, in our Diocese we pray for St. George's Church in Griffin, and in our parish, we give thanks for those who work to make our connections and friendships possible through the ministry of our various parish life gatherings. We ask God's blessing on them and pray that their work may bear much fruit in us. You are our God;

People and we thank you.

Intercessor O Lord, you are good; your mercy endures forever: be the strength of the weak and of those who are sick. [The names of the sick are read aloud.] You are our God;

People and we thank you.

Intercessor Alpha and Omega, you do not hand your beloved ones over to death, but promise life eternal to all those baptized into your Son: to you be glory and dominion forever. [The names of those who have died are read aloud.] You are our God;

People and we thank you.

Concluding Collect |

Officiant Hasten, O God, the coming of your kingdom; and grant that we your servants, who now live by faith, may with joy behold your Son at his coming in glorious majesty; even Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate.

People Amen.

Confession and Absolution |

Officiant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

The people stand or kneel for the confession.

Officiant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Peace |

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The people exchange a sign of God's peace and are seated.

Eucharistic Prayer A |

Celebrant
The Lord be with you.

People
And al - so with you.

Celebrant
Lift up your hearts.

People
We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus |

Setting: W. Mathias

organ

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,

God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry.

organ

Ho-san-na in the high-est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, Ho-san-na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and maker and of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, Almighty God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Savior. By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant and People

Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Setting: New Plain-song, David Hurd (b. 1950)

Celebrant

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Whoever you are, wherever you are on your journey, you are welcome at this table.

Healing prayers are offered in the chapel during communion.

The people are seated.

All are welcome at God's table. You may receive communion by taking both the bread and wine or simply taking the bread if you do not wish to receive the wine. If you wish to receive a blessing instead, you may cross your arms over your chest.

Communion Meditation |

"I know that my Redeemer liveth" from Messiah

George Frideric Handel (1685-1759)

I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth.
And though worms destroy this body,
yet in my flesh shall I see God.

For now is Christ risen from the dead,
the first fruits of them that sleep.

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Easter Blessing |

Celebrant

May Almighty God, who has redeemed us and made us his children through the resurrection of his Son our Lord, bestow upon us the riches of his blessing.

May God, who through the water of baptism has raised us from sin into newness of life, make us holy and worthy to be united with Christ for ever.

May God, who has brought us out of bondage to sin into true and lasting freedom in the Redeemer, bring us to our eternal inheritance.

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

This Sunday

Guest Preacher from Braid Mission, San Francisco
Sunday, April 23, 9:00 a.m. and 11:15 a.m.

We are joined by the Rev. Chris Chase and the Rev. Rebecca Edwards of Braid Mission, San Francisco. Braid Mission works with youth in foster care in the Bay Area and is a ministry of the Diocese of California. Chris will preach at our principal services and there will be an opportunity to chat with Chris and Rebecca between the services. Find out more about Braid here: <https://braidmission.org/>

Creation Care Theology

Sunday, April 23, 10:20 a.m. - 11:05 a.m., Ellis Hall

On this Earth Day Sunday, join Codi Norred, Executive Director of Georgia Interfaith Power and Light, as he reflects with All Saints' priests and a youth representative on the theology behind creation care and ecological justice.

Seeking Shalom

Sundays, April 16 through May 7, 10:20 a.m. - 11:05 a.m.,
Ross Room and on Zoom

The Hebrew word, shalom, encapsulates God's dream for the world. Shalom describes a vision of creation redeemed and restored not just through individual faith but through the cultivation of flourishing communities, just societies, and the healing of our social fabric. Join Emory professor, Dr. Ryan Bonfiglio, for this four-part course that examines the Biblical concept of shalom and how it can transform the way we think about discipleship and the mission of the church today. E-mail Associate for Formation, The Rev. Dr. Jenny McBride for more information and to request the Zoom link to participate: jmcbride@allsaintsatlanta.org

Out of Hand Play: Shirley Chisholm: Unbossed and Unbowed

Sunday, April 23, 3:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m., Ellis Hall

The play follows Shirley Chisholm, the first African American woman to run for the U.S. Presidency in the 1960s and '70s. The 90-minute program includes a conversation with Partnership for Southern Equity, which follows the hour-long play.

Jesus on the Front Page

Sundays, 10:20-11:05 a.m., P305/306

Join this ongoing discussion of the news of the day and how we are called as Christians to respond in the public arena, in our private lives, and in our prayers.

Sunday Morning Breakfast

Sundays, 8:00-9:00 a.m., Ellis Hall

Come have a Southern-style breakfast with us before going to worship, complete with bacon, eggs, biscuits, and gravy! Breakfast will be served from 8:00-9:00 a.m. in Ellis Hall and the cost is $5 per person. No registration needed. For more information contact Jill Gossett at jgossett@allsaintsatlanta.org

Giving

Cherish and Honor the Legacy of All Saints' Church: by making a planned gift and joining Cornerstone today. Include All Saints' as a beneficiary in your will, in an IRA or insurance policy. For more information contact David Begley, Chair of the Planned Giving Committee, david@wdbegley.com

All Saints' offers easy ways to pay your pledge or to make a gift:

1. Online at allsaintsatlanta.org/give
2. Mail a check to All Saints' Church, 634 W. Peachtree St., Atlanta, GA 30308
3. Put a check or cash into the offering plate during the services
4. Text to Give: text AllSaintsAtlanta to 73256
5. Gift stocks or securities

Worship & Music

The Welcome Table: Sunday Evening Worship Service and Dinner

Sundays beginning April 30, Courtyard hospitality at 5:00 p.m. and Worship at 5:15 p.m. in the Chapel

We invite you to a re-imagined evening worship service in the chapel, where we experience God's hospitality and love for the world. The service includes beautiful music from a variety of traditions, accompanied by piano and a solo instrumentalist. We'll share communion together, light candles as a symbol of our prayers, and enjoy a meal together afterwards. The sermon is brief and preached from the floor. The prayers invite your participation. The space is set up like a dinner gathering, in the round.

A Service of Recovery and Healing

Sunday, May 7, 4:30 p.m. - 5:30 p.m., on Zoom

Led by The Rev. Bob Book, our Service of Recovery and Healing meets on the second Sunday of each month at 4:30 p.m. ET. We focus on one of the 12 Steps in the context of an Evening Prayer service. Anyone interested in recovery is welcome; confidentiality is required. Visit our website for more information and to register.

Formation

Adult Inquirer's Class

Wednesdays, April 19 to May 10 from 6:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m., on Zoom (first 3 classes) & in-person (last class)

The Adult Inquirer's Class is a four-part introduction to the life of faith at All Saints', led by our rector, Simon Mainwaring. Meetings are held on Wednesday nights from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. The first three meetings take place on Zoom, and the final session is an in-person dinner at the church. Register online through Realm or contact Tracey Sage, to register or for more information.

Democracy in a Hotter Time

Sunday, April 30, 10:20 a.m. - 11:05 a.m., Ellis Hall

Join us for a conversation with The Rev. Dr. Andrew K. Barnett, Senior Associate Rector for Program at All Saints', to discuss the provocative claim that we can't solve climate change without addressing threats to democracy, and we can't solve democracy without addressing climate change. We will reflect together on how this groundbreaking framework may shape a Christian commitment to the common good.

Parish Life

Wednesday Night Supper

Wednesdays, April 26, 5 p.m. - 7 p.m., Ellis Hall

Our weekly parish evening meal paired with a Eucharist service concludes for the program year on April 26. This WNS will be the last of our program year.

Popcorn Theology: Four Weddings and a Funeral

Friday, April 28, 7:00-9:30 p.m., Ross Room

Please join us for one of the greatest British romantic comedies of all time, "Four Weddings and a Funeral." With Academy Award nominations for both Best Picture and Best Original Screenplay, this 1994 film is a gem. Young adults (and older!) most welcome! Popcorn provided but bring your own beverages! Conversation following!

World Labyrinth Day at All Saints': "Walk as One"

Saturday, May 6, 10:45 a.m. - 12:30 p.m., Chapel

This event will connect energetically to 15,000 people in 30 countries of labyrinths and walkers, heightening the power of collective contemplation for healing and global peace. The pilgrimage journey starts with intention, releasing the past world behind, walking to the center for renewal and rebirth. There will be an introduction to the Labyrinth at 10:45 a.m. and the Labyrinth will be available for walking from 11:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m., after which we will walk back out to reunite with the world.

Annual Parish Meeting

Sunday, May 14, 10:20 a.m. - 11:05 a.m., Ellis Hall

Join us for our Annual Parish Meeting, when we reflect on the past year and elect new members of the vestry, our church's leadership board.

Threads School Clothing Drive

Would you be interested in helping Threads by organizing a clothing drive at your child's school? We have the flyer printed and ready for you! It's easy! Just contact Lori Guarisco at threads@allsaintsatlanta.org

Threads: All Saints' "Earth Steward" Ministry

As Earth Day approaches please consider recycling your gently used children's clothing to Threads. Know that NOTHING you donate will ever be sold. All clothing at Threads is FREE and the items we cannot use are sent to a Congolese Community who send them on further. For more information, contact Lori Guarisco at threads@allsaintsatlanta.org

Threads Welcomes Families for Shopping!

Threads has begun welcoming families for in-store shopping Thursdays and Saturdays from 10:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. Threads needs volunteers on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays. Interested in volunteering? Contact Lori Guarisco at threads@allsaintsatlanta.org

Share a Meal with the Men of Covenant Community

You're invited to experience the miracle happening next door at Covenant Community by bringing dinner for the men on a Monday evening. Enjoy fellowship with the residents and learn more about Covenant's transformational recovery and life stabilization programs. Families, friends and co-workers are welcome to join. Please visit www.covenantatlanta.org/getinvolved for further details and to reserve your spot.

The Communications Team invites you to submit photographs of All Saints' events via e-mail for inclusion in forthcoming publications, newsletters, monitor feeds and on social media accounts. If you have content to share, please send photographs via e-mail to communications@allsaintsatlanta.org in .JPG or .PNG formats.

The Photography Guild at All Saints'

The newly formed Photography Guild is seeking volunteers to support the work of our parish by photographing events and program activities, with guidance from Communications Director Andi Dixon. Participants will have access to equipment and digital archival tools, as well as the opportunity to enjoy fellowship, learning opportunities and skill development. If you are interested, please e-mail communications@allsaintsatlanta.org.

The Publications Guild at All Saints'

The newly formed Publications Guild is seeking volunteers to support the work of our parish through the co-production of various electronic and print publications, with guidance from Communications Director Andi Dixon. We especially seek participation from participants that bring a range of communications experience and talent. If you are interested, please e-mail communications@allsaintsatlanta.org.
