Resignation of Pastor Caleb Acosta

Many of you may already have knowledge that Pastor Caleb Acosta (my husband) has recently resigned from Director of Latino Ministries. I wish to include a few words in this newsletter that come from him personally out of honor and respect for his service with Latino Ministries, Global Reach and the CGGC. Here is a personal message of his for the Conference nationwide.

“God Bless the Churches of God General Conference ministry leaders and pastors. During this time, I have resigned from Director of Latino Ministries. I do give thanks to God for the opportunity given to me to participate and bless the church Latino Spanish Churches around the world. It came time to make a decision to move ahead in God in leaving this position, I bless the leadership taking on this challenge for what is to come now in this new season and in the future. We know that God is in control of all things as we are the instruments to serve in an area. We don’t let down our hands in God’s , but only give the opportunity for new opportunities to serve. We simply love and serve the work of the Lord. I give thanks to all the Pastors, their families, leadership and congregational bodies, in all the world that served along with me and encouraged us during this time....”

I also give thanks to God for the support my wife has given me during my time in serving in the position. My desire is that God would continue to bless her life and that she would continue to move forward in serving in her current position with Global Reach to help meet the objectives of further growth and advancement of the work of the lord.

May God continue to bless everyone, and may he help you to continue to grow and prosper in Jesus' name. God Bless You All.”

Pastor Caleb Acosta.

It was announced that Pastor Victor Montalvo and Pastor Christina Acosta will serve as Co-Leaders for now. Both of us have agreed to work together to ensure the transition is a smooth and positive one for the Mission Fields and Churches of God General Conference, and Global Reach.

Many have also inquired about financial giving pertaining to Victor and my account. Both of us have a support account established. For Christina the same GR code remains. For Victor a new account number was established:

- Christina Acosta GR 2764
- Victor Montalvo GR 2755

The GR accounts are currently open through the Churches of God and contributions can be made online or by mail. Please see the Giving section of this newsletter for other giving opportunities as well.
