Spring 2025

December 20th, ministry was carried out at the IRB hospital, where more than 300 hallacas—Venezuelan Christmas dish—were delivered, toys were given to the little ones, and most importantly; a word of Hope, showing the love of Jesus that surpasses all understanding.

Friday, January 31, we began our year of study as a group of women from the Churches of God, General Conference of Venezuela. For 3 months, we will study getting to know Jesus through the New Testament.

We also worked through the book, “A Real Family,” with a class of children.

The topics were:

- God does not give up.
- God forgives us.
- God is Faithful.
- God sacrificed himself for us.
- God’s goodness towards us.
- God gave us another family (The Church)
- Our present does not determine our future.

During all 365 days of the year, we gave what God has given us, which is his love, Serving characterizes us and we are already preparing to give much more next year because it is better to give than to receive. We are hope.
