WORSHIP FOR WORKERS' CONCERT

Join us for the theologically rich music and prayer of Porter's Gate—a collective of theologians and singer-songwriters including Sandra McCracken, Taylor Leonhardt, Paul Zach, Josh Garrels, and others.

Porter's Gate brings theologians and musicians together around a shared theme. In this project, theologians led workshops on the theology of work while musicians listened, wrote poetry, and crafted songs throughout the week. The result is Worship for Workers—music meant to give language for deeper, more honest conversations with God about the complexities of the work week.

This album and concert is crafted especially for teachers, attorneys, accountants, chefs, engineers, child-care professionals, therapists, researchers, designers, administrators, dentists—and anyone whose work includes pressure, responsibility, good days, and hard ones.

Each song speaks to the heart of a different kind of worker, offering prayerful reflection, hope, and reminder that our daily labor matters to God.

Come be refreshed, named, and reminded that you are not alone in your work. Sample some of their music using the QR codes below.

Sermon Notes

2 Corinthians 13:1–13 by Pastor Alf Halvorson

- 1. A Warning (vv. 1-4)

 - a. Paul reaches a point where a direct confrontation is necessary. In your own life, what is something you've been avoiding that now requires clarity and courage to address?
- 2. A Wish (vv. 5-8)

 - a. Paul asks the church to "examine yourselves." What spiritual "warning lights" might be on in your life right now?
 - b. When you look in the mirror of Scripture or prayer, where do you sense Jesus is active in you? Where do you feel resistance?
 - c. Lent invites us to take on or give up practices to grow spiritually. What practice might help you draw closer to Christ this season?
- 3. A Hope (vv. 9-12)

 - a. In what area of your faith do you sense growth? In what area do you feel stuck?
 - b. Paul urges unity, peace, and a willingness to receive hard exhortation. Why is it so difficult to hear correction?
- 4. A Blessing (v. 13)

 - a. Of the grace of Jesus, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit—which do you personally need most right now, and why?
 - b. How does understanding the Triune nature of God shape your relationship with Him and others?
 - c. Where do you long for God-given serenity in your life?
- 5. Bringing It Home

 - a. What part of this passage or sermon most challenged you?
 - b. What encouraged you or gave you hope?
 - c. What is one concrete step you will take this week to live more faithfully, courageously, or lovingly?
