For Further Reflection:

1. If you were a news reporter covering the story of Jesus' crucifixion, what would have impressed you the most? The callousness of the soldiers? The Absence of most of Jesus' followers? The loyalty of Jesus' mother and several friends? The caring of Jesus for his mother?
2. What does Jesus entrusting his mother and John to each other say to you about the importance of your spiritual family?
3. Given Jesus' mother's faith in him at the outset of his public ministry (John 2:3-5), what must she be feeling now at the end? Why is Old Testament prophecy about Jesus' death (Ex. 12:46; Zech 12:10) so important in this chapter in John?
4. Are you closer to Christ now than you were five years ago? Are you closer to some people now than five years ago? If yes, in what ways? If no, why?
