CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: What is Love? We know that Love comes down with Jesus for God is Love, but we see so many things that make it feel like love is far away from this war stained world, far away from the urgent, desperate whispers of the sick and hurting, far away from all that we hope for. Yet love holds on, love brings us together with peace and joy, together where we hope for things yet seen, together where we comfort one another with peace, together where we celebrate even small victories. Love brings us in, welcomes us just as we are, and gives us space to shine our light. So we light the candle of Love, knowing that we do not wait alone in this Advent, but that we wait alongside the Love that already is found throughout the world.

CANDLE LIGHTING RESPONSE

Light One Candle

Mark Patterson

Light one can-dle for love, love that the whole world needs.

Light one can-dle for love, love that the Sav-ior will bring.

Love that the sav - ior will bring.

PRAYER OF ADORATION (unison)

Like pregnant Mary, we feel something stir within us a sense of wonder at the starlit sky, a feeling of love for our families, a twinge of joy as we find the gift that expresses our deepest appreciation, a sudden stillness when we sense your divine Presence. O God, help us be attentive to the rise of hope within us, bidding us to action. Amen.

Come, Thou Long-Expected Jesus 82

1 Come, thou long - ex - spect - ed Je - sus, born to set thy peo - ple free;
2 Born thy peo - ple to de - liv - er, born a child and yet a king, from our fears and sins re - lease us; let us find our rest in thee.

born to reign in us for - ev - er, now thy gra - cious king - dom bring.

Is - rael's strength and con - so - la - tion, hope of all the earth thou art;
By thine own e - ter - nal Spir - it rule in all our hearts a - lone;

dear de - sire of ev - ery na - tion, joy of ev - ery long - ing heart.
by thine all - suf - fi - cient mer - it raise us to thy glo - rious throne.

With its opening "Come," this hymn sounds the note of entreaty and invitation that characterizes the Advent season (from the Latin adventus = "coming"). Its blending of memory and hope helps us to give voice to our present faith as we stand between the past and the future.

*CALL TO CONFESSION

Leader: Let us confess our sins to the One whose mercy endures from generation to generation.

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

God of peace, who sent light into the world in the coming of Jesus Christ: We confess that we have not followed the light given to us. We have not searched for signs of your love, or trusted the goodness of your good news. We have failed to praise your Son's birth as we have refused his peace on earth. We have expected little and hoped for less. Forgive our doubt, and renew in us all fine desires so we may watch and wait and once more hear the glad story of the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

This 20th-century paraphrase is based on the Song of Mary (Luke 1:46–55), commonly known by its opening Latin word, Magnificat. This song of praise offers clear reminders that God's purposes often lead to the reversal of human values, exalting the poor and dethroning the mighty.

RESPONDING TO THE WORD

HYMN NO. 99

My Soul Gives Glory to My God

MORNING SONG

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH: From A Declaration of Faith (unison)

Jesus, the long expected Savior, came into the world as a child, descended from David, conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of Mary, a virgin. He lived as a Jew among Jews. He announced to his people the coming of God's kingdom of justice and peace on earth. We affirm that Jesus was born of woman as is every child, yet born of God's power as was no other child.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER (UNISON)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts
as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

What Child Is This

GREENSLEEVES

What child is this, who, laid to rest on Mary's lap, is sleeping?
 Whom angels greet with anthems sweet, while shepherds watch are keeping?
 This, this is Christ the King, whom shepherds guard and angels sing:
 Haste, haste to bring him laud, the babe, the son of Mary.

Why lies he in such mean estate where ox and ass are feeding?
 Good Christian, fear: for sinners here the silent Word is pleading Nails, spear shall pierce him through, the cross be born for me, for you.
 Hail, hail the Word made flesh, the babe, the son of Mary.

So bring him incense, gold, and myrrh; come, peasant, king to own him.
 The King of kings salvation brings; let loving hearts enthrone him.
 Raise, raise the song on high, the virgin sings her lullaby;
 Joy, joy for Christ is born, the babe, the son of Mary!

 Veiled in flesh the God-head see; hail the in-car - nate de - i - ty, pleased in flesh with us to dwell, Je - sus, our Em-man - u - el.

 born to raise us from the earth, born to give us sec - ond birth.

Brought together in the mid-19th century, the text and tune of this familiar carol began in quite different forms. The text had ten stanzas and began, "Hark, how all the welkin rings." The tune was created for a festival celebrating Gutenberg's introduction of moveable type.

JESUS CHRIST: BIRTH

Hark! The her - ald an - gels sing, "Glo - ry to the new-born king!"

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of two staves, a treble staff and a bass staff, both in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is written in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the treble staff. The score ends with a double bar line.

❧ NOTES ABOUT TODAY'S MUSIC ❧

This morning's prelude and postlude are arrangements of medieval carols. The tune for "Of The Father's Love Begotten" comes from the 13th century. It is arranged here by modern composer Wilbur Held. The tune for "Good Christian Friends, Rejoice" is thought to have been composed by German mystic Heinrich Seuse about 1328. It was later featured in the final movement of Michael Praetorius' Christmas Mass. German organist and composer Paul Fey rewrote that instrumental version for organ. Praetorius lived from 1571–1621. Listen for the "early music" feel of this arrangement, with dance-like rhythms and percussive drum rolls.

❧ THE CHANCEL FLOWERS ❧

The chancel flowers are given to the Glory of God
by Dr. John M. Pitman III and Mrs. Mary Bissell Pittman, Second Lieutenant John M. Pittman IV, Annamaria Pittman, and Bert Pittman, in loving memory of Dr. and Mrs. John M. Pittman Jr., Rev. F. W. Pittman, John M. Pittman Sr., Catherine P. Pittman, Mary Sue Pittman Aldrich, Mary L. Pittman, Ella Pittman Jones, and Lawrence C. Pittman.

✧ CHILDREN'S STATEMENT ✧

Children are welcome at WPC! We have Sunday School for all ages at 9:30 a.m. and a nursery for children ages 3 and below during both services. We also have children's worship bags and sensory objects available to be borrowed while in the building. Please ask an usher if you need assistance in locating anything.

The way we welcome children in church directly affects the way they respond to the Church, to God, and to one another. Let them know, and let us show them, that they are at home in this house of worship. Parents, feel free to sit near the front where children can see, explain the parts of the service to them, and invite them to learn by watching and copying. And relax, God put the wiggle in children, so don't feel you have to suppress it in God's house. All are welcome!

✧ SUPPORT FOR OUR MEMBERS ✧

- Stephen Ministers. In need of one-on-one prayer? Please look for a Stephen Minister in the Fellowship Hall or the church foyer after the morning services. They will find a private place to talk and pray with you. Just look for the blue Stephen Ministry name tags.
- Monthly grief support group meets the first Wednesday of the month at 10:00 a.m. in room 220 on the second level. During this meeting we check in with one another and occasionally watch videos about a specific grief topic. All are welcome to attend.
