CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICE

10:00PM • DECEMBER 24, 2025

PRAYER FOR PREPARATION

Living God, on this holy night we gather—to stand with shepherds, amazed at your glory; to sing with angels, rejoicing in your work; to wait with Joseph, trusting in your promise; to sit with Mary, cradling your love. May the good news of this night inspire us to tell the world of our great joy: for to us is born a Savior, the Messiah, the Lord. Glory and praise to you forever! Amen.

All: Loving God, we offer our thanks for the gift of love born to us on this most joyous night. Like the shepherds, let us approach the manger with wonder and awe. Like the magi, let us come with grateful hearts. And let us open our hearts to receive the good news of which the angels sang. On this most holy night, we offer our prayers for peace in our world. Help us to make peace possible as we follow in the footsteps of the maker of peace who came to us as a babe in Bethlehem. Amen.

OFFERTORY

O Holy Night

arr. John Behnke

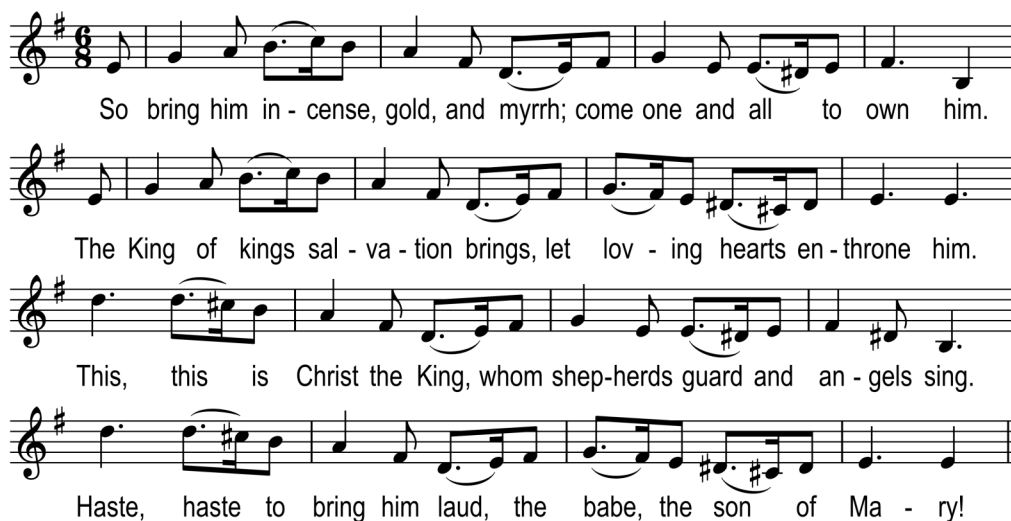

O holy night! The stars are brightly shining;
It is the night of the dear Savior's birth.
Long lay the world in sin and error pining,
Till he appeared and the soul felt its worth.
A thrill of hope—the weary world rejoices,
For yonder breaks a new and glorious morn!
Fall on your knees! O hear the angel voices!
O night divine, O night when Christ was born.
O night, O holy night, O night divine!

Truly he taught us to love one another;
His law is just and his gospel is peace.
Chains shall he break, for the slave is our brother,
And in his name all oppression shall cease.
Sweet hymns of joy in grateful chorus raise we;
Let all within us praise his holy name.
Christ is the Lord! O praise his name forever!
His power and glory evermore proclaim!
His power and glory evermore proclaim!

SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

Williamsburg Presbyterian Church welcomes all who believe in Jesus Christ to share the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper with us today. We receive the elements by means of intinction, taking a piece of bread and dipping it into the cup. For those who desire an individual serving, regular or gluten free, they will be on a table in front of the baptismal font and on the small tables located in the balcony. If you are seated on the main floor of the sanctuary, you are invited to come forward to the chancel area by way of the center aisle and return to your pews by the side aisle. If you are sitting in the balcony, an usher will guide you to the sacrament. If you are unable to come forward easily, please signal to one of the ushers or elders so the communion elements can be brought to your seat.

THE LORD'S PRAYER (unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

COMMUNION ANTHEM

All the Stars Looked Down

John Rutter (b.1948)

The Christ-child lay on Mary's lap,
His hair was like alight.
(O weary, weary were the world,
But here is all aright.)

The Christ-child lay on Mary's breast,
His hair was like a star.
(O stern and cunning are the kings,
But here the true hearts are.)

The Christ-child lay on Mary's heart,
his hair was like a fire.
(O weary, weary is the world,
but here the world's desire.)

The Christ-child stood at Mary's knee,
His hair was like a crown,
And all the flowers looked up at him,
And all the stars looked down.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION (unison)

FESTIVAL OF LIGHTS

Leader: God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. In Christ was life and the life was the light of all people.

People: The light shines in the darkness; and the darkness has never been able to put it out. That was the true light, which enlightens everyone that comes into the world. Jesus said, "I am the light of the world; those who follow me shall not walk in darkness but shall have the light of life."

Glories stream from heaven afar, Heavenly hosts sing "Alleluia;
Christ the Savior is born, Christ the Savior is born!"

Silent night, holy night! Son of God, love's pure light
Radiant beams from Thy holy face, With the dawn of redeeming grace, Jesus, Lord, at Thy birth, Jesus, Lord, at Thy birth.

∞ THIS EVENING'S MUSIC ∞

This evening's organ music features the Canonic Variations on Vom Himmel Hoch. The English translation of the hymn, entitled "From Heaven Above, To Earth I Come", can be found on page 111 in the pew hymnal. Bach composed a series of five variations of increasing musical complexity. The first variation opens with a descending scale in the right hand, representing Christ's coming among us. The left hand plays the identical musical line throughout the entire piece, slightly delayed, while the melody appears in the pedal line. The second variation is of similar style, with the left hand mirrors the right hand but starting on a different note. By the fifth variation, the melody appears in all voices in a variety of decorations including inverted (upside down). The closing flourish features six independent musical lines wrapping around Bach's signature motif, spelling his name (B-A-C-H) in the last measure. Bach's genius shines in making this mind-bending composition joyful and appropriate for the season. Want to know how to spell B-A-C-H on a keyboard? Or see the various musical lines interweaving? Consult our organist or watch the clever YouTube video entitled "Vom Himmel Hoch (Deconstruction)".
