Raise Your Joys and Triumphs High!

A missionary was showing The Jesus Film to a tribe in the jungles of East Asia who had never heard of Jesus and never seen a motion picture. As they watched this good man Jesus, Who healed the sick and was adored by children, be held without trial, be beaten by jeering soldiers and be crucified, the people came unglued. They stood up and began to shout at the cruel men on the screen, demanding that this outrage stop. They attacked the missionary running the projector. Perhaps he was responsible for this injustice! He was forced to stop the film and explain that the story wasn't over yet, that there was more. So they settled back onto the ground, holding their emotions in check. Then came the resurrection. Pandemonium broke out this time, but for a different reason. The gathering had spontaneously erupted into a party. The noise now was of jubilation, and it was deafening. The people were dancing and slapping each other on the back. Christ is risen, indeed!

Excerpts from Ben Patterson, Resurrection and Pandemonium.*

This coming Easter Sunday, you and I will revisit the resurrection of Jesus Who triumphed over sin, death, and hell. May we all come to worship this Sunday as though we were experiencing this truth for the first time. Let us "raise our joys and triumphs high" as we celebrate.

"Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here: he has risen!" (Luke 24:5)
