Creating and redeeming God, calling and sending Spirit, we welcome you and open our hearts to receive you into our worship. We welcome the love that is the essence of your Divine nature. We receive the Word and sacraments that mediate your grace. We welcome the one who is new to us and receive the one who is hurting, sad or lonely. We welcome the old and the young, the healthy and infirmed, and the strong and the weak, for we all have been or will be each of these in our turn.
