*CALL TO WORSHIP Alana Dalton / All

The world needs to change. And we are the changemakers!

This work of changemaking is going to take a while.

We are called to be changemakers for our whole lives!

And this work is going to take all of us. If we want to keep change going, we need to be inviting others, joining with others, witnessing to others,
and empowering others to do this work with us.

For many of us, this is the hardest part of making change,

but we are ready to be bold.

We come to worship this morning, eager to be part of this movement and to bring others along in our work.

We come to worship this morning, trusting that God will empower us.

We are the changemakers, and we are ready!

Thanks be to God!

*CALL TO CONFESSION Alana Dalton / All

God has given us all we need to build a movement, but it is slow and difficult work. Let us confess together the times that we have waned and faltered in our work of making change. Holy One, you have shown us how to empower other people through the life of Jesus Christ, and yet, we insist on doing this changemaking work alone.

We say that’s because no one else came to do the work, but did we bother to invite them? No, we didn’t. Maybe we were too afraid to ask. Maybe we were afraid they would say, ‘No.’ We don’t like the feeling of rejection. Or maybe we wanted things done our way, and we didn’t want someone else to mess it up. We do like the feeling of control.

But in all of this, we forget that the work of changemaking is not about us.

It is God’s work. It is important work that must continue beyond us, and after us.

Forgive us.

Forgive us for making your work small. Forgive us for our weakness and timidity.

Send us your spirit again, and free us from our fear and complacency. Embolden us.

Make us unafraid of change, and undeterred in our work of changemaking. Amen.
