PRELUDE	Deanna Gibeau
WELCOME	Pastor Hae-Jeong Yoon
OPENING PRAYER	Pastor Hae-Jeong Yoon
*CALL TO WORSHIP	Sandy Blumenberg

Leader: Come, people of God, and prepare the way of the Lord. Though the land has been dry and our hearts have longed for renewal, God has not forgotten His promise.

People: We welcome waiting for the sound of abundant rain and the outpouring of your Spirit.

Leader: Elijah was a person like us, yet he prayed earnestly, trusted deeply, and watched expectantly for Your answer.

People: Teach us to pray with faith, to seek You with humility, and to prepare our hearts for revival.

Leader: When the cloud is small and the signs seem few, still You are the God who sends rain, restores the Earth, and brings life to Your people.

People: Stir us to repentance, awaken us to prayer, and make us ready for the new thing You desire to do among us.

Leader: Let us worship the Lord who hears, who answers, and who refreshes dry places with His mercy and power.

People: We come in hope, in faith, and in holy expectation. Let us worship God!

*CALL TO CONFESSION	Sandy Blumenberg
---------------------	------------------

God of grace, when you call us to pray, we are often distracted. When You invite us to repent, we resist.

We confess that our hearts can become dry, our prayers can become shallow, and our faith can become small. We have depended on our own strength more than Your Spirit. We have tolerated what should be surrendered, neglected what should be pursued, and settled for comfort when You call us to deeper devotion.

Forgive us, Lord. Cleanse us, renew us, and turn our hearts fully toward You. Teach us to seek You with humility and perseverance, that we may be ready for the fresh work of Your Spirit. In Jesus' name, Amen.
