

Into His Presence

Psalm 34:5

*Those who look to him for help will be radiant with joy;
no shadow of shame will darken their faces.*

Our God is the kindest person in the world. This scripture invites us to rush into God's presence like a dearly beloved child.

God is gentle. God is tender. God is faithful and good Father. God is God of great joy! Join your life with God's, and you belong to God. Trust God more than any other. God is our greatest hope. There is no other person like God in the world. God astounded me with His love. There is always a fresh portion of mercy to share with me. As we pour our hearts before God, God fills us God's affectionate favor. God is with you; God is for you.

God's love removes the shame of our youth, of poor choices made. God wash over your mistakes with love. God redeemed you, which no one can imagine. God brings light into the shadow of past, breathes into you the lightness and freshness of new life! God heals your wounds you do not even remember. God lets you dream the forgotten dreams. God is infinitely good beyond all the human imagination.

Grace and Joy,
