Harvesting Joy & Faithfulness

As autumn arrives at Fifth Avenue UMC, we will see the beautiful harvest all around us. I desire to see also a bountiful spiritual harvest in the spirits of our church family too. This season let us be reminded of the fruits of the Holy Spirit. Galatians 5:22-23 states; "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. The law is not against such things." The Greek language of fruit expresses it as one fruit, but as we read, it represents a cluster of multiple qualities or characteristics as written above. Let's think together on two qualities of the fruit, which will encourage us on our journey.

First, Joy! What a precious fruit of the Spirit! Unlike happiness, which depends on circumstances, spiritual joy is like a river that runs deeper. It's a settled assurance that God is in control, a confidence that ultimately everything will work together for good (Romans 8:28). So, joy doesn't deny life's difficulties but transcends them. Think of Paul and Silas singing hymns in prison (Acts 16:25). This joy isn't about plastering on a smile when we're hurting, but about finding delight in God's presence even in challenging seasons. Methodist founder, John Wesley, experienced this transformative joy at Aldersgate when his heart was "strangely warmed." That joy became the energy of his ministry, sustaining him through persecution, rejection, and exhaustion.

Alongside joy, the Spirit cultivates faithfulness in us. Which is steadfast quality of remaining true to our commitments and convictions. Faithfulness means showing up day after day, whether in sunshine or storm. The Bible celebrates faithful people: Ruth refusing to abandon Naomi, Daniel continuing to pray despite the lions' den. Faithfulness isn't about perfection but more about persistence. It's about getting up when we fall, returning when we stray, and continuing to trust God's promises when evidence seems scarce.

How do we cultivate these fruits in our lives? Unlike the natural autumn harvest, spiritual fruits grow continually as we remain connected to the vine (John 15:5). To nurture joy, fill your heart with gratitude by seeing the situation and yourself through the eyes of God. Meditate on God's promises. There is no suffering without promise. I want to add one thing more. Open your eyes to the beauty of the season in a more contemplative way. Your soul will be nourished by the beauty, and you will be filled with the presence that fills our hearts with divine nourishment!

To develop faithfulness, I encourage you to think about one person who can be a friend of faith, and to be accountable to each other. You can share life regularly for prayer, love, and care for each other.

Grace and Love,

Pastor Hae-Jeong

Our Vision:

A welcoming faith community that makes devoted followers of Jesus freely sharing their belief.

THANK YOU!

We are at war. It's a war we feel deep inside our own chests: we are at war with lies. Live No Lies is brilliant, deep, scriptural book, and it will equip you to face the enemy and fight.

The problem isn't so much that we tell lies but that we live them. We let them into our bodies, and they sabotage our peace. All around us in the culture and deep within our own body memories are lies: deceptive ideas that wreak havoc on our emotional health and spiritual well-being, and deceptive ideas about who God is, who we are, and what the good life truly is. The choice is not whether to fight or not fight, but whether we win or surrender.

In this provocative and practical book, bestselling author John Mark Comer combines cultural analysis with spiritual formation. He identifies the role lies play in our spiritual deformation and lays out a strategic plan to overcome them.

Do you feel the tug-of-war in your own heart, the inner conflict between truth and lies? The spirit and the flesh? The Way of Jesus and the world? It's time to start winning. It's time to live no lies...

Beguiled by Beauty

By Tom and Sandy Blumenberg

In the August Newsletter, Coming Soon to a Pew, Fellowship Hall, or Feeding Site Near You!, recycling was addressed. Recycling is an important component in maintaining the beauty of this Earth.

Following that introduction, here are some guidelines about recycling which were provided by Green For Life, the waste/recycling contractor for West Bend.

Around the church building you find receptacles identified as recyclables. Remember:

- ♦ Glass: bottles and jars only (clear or colored)
- ♦ Aluminum: cans only
- ♦ Tin and steel: food cans only
- ♦ Plastics: milk, soda, juice, water bottles
- ♦ Paper and cardboard
- ♦ All items should be clean and dry.
- ♦ Used paper cups, or plates with food residue are NOT recyclable.

Detailed descriptions of these categories will follow in coming months.

The Spirit of God Has Been Given to Me

“The Spirit of God has been given to me,
For God has anointed me
and sent me to bring good news to the poor:
To proclaim liberty to the captives;
To the blind, new sight;
To set the downtrodden free,
To proclaim the year of God’s favor.”

A Prayer for October

Gracious God, master gardener of our souls, we open ourselves to your Spirit's work. Cultivate in us the fruits of joy and faithfulness that we might be witnesses to your goodness in all seasons of life. Help us to remain rooted in you, drawing nourishment from your Word and your presence. May our lives produce a harvest that brings glory to you and nourishment to others.
In Jesus' name, Amen.

A Call for Peace in the Midst of Conflict in the Mideast

As Bishops of The United Methodist Church, we stand united in our pursuit of peace and our commitment to the sacredness of human life, guided by the Scriptures and our Social Principles. The scriptures and the Social Principles affirm the sacred worth and dignity of every person, emphasizing the importance of resolving disputes peacefully and promoting justice, equality, and compassion.

In light of the recent escalation of tensions in the Middle East, we echo the timeless wisdom of the prophet Micah, who implored us to “act justly, love mercy, and walk humbly” (Micah 6:8). Our Social Principles remind us that “war is incompatible with the teachings of our Lord Jesus Christ” (§ 166.A), and we urge all parties involved to prioritize diplomacy and dialogue over violence and aggression.

The Bible reminds us that “blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God” (Matthew 5:9). We are called to be peacemakers, seeking solutions that promote understanding and reconciliation. A continued conflict in the Middle East would have devastating consequences, causing irreparable harm to innocent lives and destabilizing the region and affecting communities throughout the world.

In this critical moment, we call on all United Methodists to join our efforts in advocating for peace. May God guide us toward a hopeful future, where nations and peoples can live in harmony and mutual respect. Together, let’s join in this prayer:

God of justice and compassion, we lift our voices in prayer for peace in the Middle East, that all hearts may turn from violence to understanding and from fear to hope. Guide your leaders with wisdom and courage to pursue the path of peace, rooted in the dignity and sacred worth of every person. May our prayers rise as a witness to your hope and healing for all nations.

Food Donations - October 5

NEIGHBORHOOD TABLE

In May, our church began a new outreach mission, Neighborhood Table, serving a free Community Meal the 1st Wednesday night of the month. Neighborhood Table was started for the homeless, the struggling, or isolated members of the West Bend community. All are welcome to enjoy a bountiful hot meal and the warm friendship of church members as “table friends”. We are off to a good start with regular guests and consistent numbers for each meal. As of September, we offered this Community Meal twice a month on 1st & 3rd Wednesdays. Fifth Avenue Neighborhood Table will be held on the first and third Wednesdays, October 1st and 15th and so on.

We want to offer bakery items for our guests to enjoy beforehand or to take with them for the following days. This request is based on a need several guests brought to our attention. We are asking for your help with homemade or store-bought bakery items (cookies, bars, desserts, sweet goods, bread, etc.). Bakery items may be dropped off in Fellowship Hall by 2pm on each Wednesday that Neighborhood Table is held.

Also, we are in need of volunteers to help with kitchen clean-up from 5:30-7:00 p.m. Join us for a delicious meal, then stay to work with fellow church members on this event.

Finally, Are you a Thrivent Financial member? If so, then please lead a Thrivent Action Team. One of our church members did and was able to secure a $250 debit card, which was used to purchase grocery and other items for one night’s meal preparation. Please check out your Thrivent Financial log in website for details.

Thank you for your support of Fifth Avenue Neighborhood Table and for your prayers for our guests.
