

Rising 7th Grade: Summer Reading Projects

Complete the two projects listed below for Team Moon, by Catherine Thimmesh:

1. Make a trading card with the specifications listed below for each of the following characters:

flight directors, camera designers, software experts, suit testers, aerospace technicians, photo-developers, engineers, and navigators.

2. Define 'Unsung Heroes,' and describe some modern-day examples and what they do/did that makes them fit into this category of people.

Trading Card Specifications:

- A. Use blank (unlined) 3 x 5 index cards or print on cardstock if completing by computer.
- B. Either by hand or electronically draw the characters.
- C. Give three-to-five character traits for the characters.
- D. Give relational details about the character to the mission and/or another character.
- E. Give a defining moment for the character.

'Unsung Heroes' Project:

Choose either additional trading cards or a poster to complete this project.

BOTH PROJECTS:

Attention to detail in grammar/writing, as well as neatness and creativity will be factored into the grade.
