THE PASTORAL GREETING & INVOCATION

THE REMEMBRANCE OF BAPTISM

P: In Holy Baptism, Joe was clothed with the robe of Christ's righteousness that covered all his sin. St. Paul says, "Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?"

C: "We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his." (Romans 6:3-5)

P: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the source of all mercy and the God of all consolation. He comforts us in all our sorrows so that we can comfort others in their sorrows with the consolation we ourselves have received from God."
(2 Corinthians 1:3-4)

C: Thanks be to God.

THE PRAYER OF THE DAY

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: Let us pray. O God of grace and glory, we remember before you today our brother in Christ, Joe. We thank you for giving him to us to know and to love as a companion in our pilgrimage on earth. In your boundless compassion, console those who mourn. Give us your aid, so we may see in death the gate to eternal life, that we may continue our course on earth in confidence, until we are reunited with those who have gone before us; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Psalms 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. ² He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. ³ He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. ⁴ Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. ⁵ Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. ⁶ Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

THE EPISTLE LESSON

Romans 8:10-18

¹⁰ But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. ¹¹ If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. ¹² So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. ¹³ For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. ¹⁴ For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. ¹⁵ For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!" ¹⁶ The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, ¹⁷ and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. ¹⁸ For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

John 14:1-6

"Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. ² In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. ³ And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. ⁴ You know the way to the place where I am going." ⁵ Thomas said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going, so how can we know the way?" ⁶ Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."

THE CONFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day he rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.
From thence he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Christian Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

April 3, 1966 – March 17, 2024

Joe was born in Pinehurst, North Carolina on April 3rd, 1966. He graduated from Albemarle High School and continued on to receive a Bachelor of Science in Earth Sciences from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte and a Master of Science in Geology at the University of South Carolina.

For over two decades, Joe worked as the founder, president, and Principal Geologist at his company Highlands Environmental Solutions which he created in 2003. Highlands Environmental Solutions was one of the many things that Joe loved and he tirelessly devoted his time, attention, and skills to protecting the earth and helping others in times of crisis. Through Highlands Environmental Solutions, many of Joe's clients and coworkers became his close friends and he cherished all of these people. Before Highlands Environmental Solutions, Joe worked as a police officer with the Cary Police Department from December 1998 to January of 2005. Joe delighted in being a police officer and had an extensive knowledge of the law, which he kept up to date even after he left the department.

When Joe was not working, he enjoyed cooking, going to the gym, being outdoors, spending time on the water in his boat with his family, and he most recently enjoyed gardening. Joe was a dedicated and loving father who jumped at the opportunity to spend time with his children and enjoyed teaching them to fish at Falls Lake, how to cook, and about geology. Joe loved participating in father-daughter dances and events with his daughter and participating in Boy Scouting events with his sons. Joe was actively involved in the Boy Scouts of America and spent many years serving in a leadership role in this organization. Joe spent an enormous amount of time meticulously taking care of the things he loved including his home, garden, business, and his family and friends.

Joe is survived by his daughter and son-in-law Rebecca and Steven Mayse, his son and his son's fiancée, Benjamin Beaman and Rebecca Clardy, his son Andrew Beaman, his companion, Christie Bates, his parents Robert and Sandra Beaman, his brother Gary Beaman and his many friends.

Joe is preceded in death by his grandfather and step-grandmother, Robert and Alice Beaman, grandmother Bonnie Beaman, and grandparents Arthur and Sara Roach.

The family of Joe Beaman wishes to thank the Cary Police Department for their recognition of Joe's service.
