What's Happening at Otterbein!

Barnabas Group - August

This month, the Barnabas Group has chosen a new individual who would appreciate your prayers and words of encouragement. You will find their name and note cards in the narthex or multipurpose room.

Please take a moment to write a note that shares God's love, comfort, and encouragement. If writing is not your thing, preprinted cards with messages are available—just sign your name and place the card in the basket.

BASIC Adult Sunday School Class – 10:00 AM – Room 8 (Sept. 6 – Oct. 11)

Please join Harry Owens as he leads the class on “Difficult Words of Jesus” starting on September 6th. Jesus provided his disciples teachings for how to follow Torah, God’s word; he told them parables to help them discern questions of ethics and of human nature; he offered them beatitudes for comfort and encouragement. But sometimes Jesus spoke words that followers then and now have found difficult. He instructs disciples to hate members of their own families (Luke 14:26), to act as if they were slaves (Matthew 20:27), and to sell their belongings and give to the poor (Luke 18:22). He restricts his mission (Matthew 10:6); he speaks of damnation (Matthew 8:12); he calls Jews the devil’s children (John 8:44).

In The Difficult Words of Jesus, Amy-Jill Levine shows how these difficult teachings would have sounded to the people who first heard them, how have they been understood over time, and how we might interpret them in the context of the Gospel of love and reconciliation.

Women’s Bible Study – 7:00 PM – Room 8 (September 15 – November 17)

The Women's Bible Study Group is wrapping up their summer study and are planning their fall study! Next up: Beatitudes from the Back Side (a different take on what it means to be blessed) by J. Ellsworth Kalas. It has been said that Jesus’ Sermon on the Mount is “Christianity 101.” Certainly the Beatitudes are much loved, yet can be quite confusing...how can being persecuted or being in mourning feel “blessed?”

Join us on Tuesdays for ten sessions, beginning September 15 and concluding November 17, the week before Thanksgiving. We look forward to having different women lead each session. If you would like to volunteer to lead a discussion, please contact Brenda Brehm or Rosa Seyfried. You will find it rewarding!

If you would like us to order a book for you, please respond to the Women’s Group Facebook post or contact Sally Mentzer at sallymentzer@gmail.com. The book order will be placed on Sept. 4, so please submit your request before that date. Books are also available on Amazon if you prefer to order your own copy. We invite you to join us for this study, even if you can only attend a few sessions. We know you will be blessed!

Two Bible Study Opportunities by Pastor Steve

Philippians: Joy in Every Circumstance – 10:00 AM - Library (Sept. 17 – Oct. 22)

What does it mean to experience genuine joy, even when life doesn't go according to plan? Join us for a six-week study of Paul’s letter to the Philippians as we explore Christian joy, humility, purpose, peace, and contentment. Together, we’ll dig into the biblical text, discover what Paul’s message meant for the early church, and consider what it means for us as followers of Christ today.

No previous Bible study experience is necessary—just bring your Bible, your questions, and a willingness to grow.

How to Be a Disciple Wednesday - 6:30 PM - Library (Sept. 16 – Oct. 21)

Following Jesus is more than believing the right things, it's learning to live like Jesus in every part of our lives. In this six-week study, we'll explore what it means to grow as a disciple through prayer, Scripture, worship, Christian community, serving others, and sharing our faith. Each week will combine biblical teaching with practical ways to put our faith into action.

Whether you're new to following Christ or have been walking with Him for years, come discover what it looks like to move from simply believing in Jesus to intentionally following Him.

Mission Trip Scheduled!

Are you available September 20th? The Mission Committee has scheduled a Hurricane Helene rebuilding trip with Appalachia Service Project from September 20–27 in western North Carolina. Appalachia Service Project helps build and repair homes for people in need throughout Appalachia. There will be work for every skill level, and we will stay in an Airbnb with plenty of bedrooms and bathrooms. If you can only join us for part of the week, that is perfectly fine. It is time to SIGN UP and there are SPOTS AVAILABLE! If you are interested in the trip, talk to Julie Greenisen for more information (717) 701-0701.

OY (Otterbein Youth) returns Sunday, September 13th! OY is open to all youth in grades 6 – 12. We meet on the 2nd and 4th Sunday of each month, September through May. OY meets from 6:00 pm – 8:00 pm in the gym; dinner is provided. If you would like to be added to the email reminder list for OY, please reach out to Janna Brandt at families@ottumc.org.

Glenn Pepper Milk Giveaway

On September 12, 2026, from 8:00 to 12:00 noon, Otterbein will be hosting the Glenn Pepper Milk Giveaway. There will be 500 gallons of milk available until 12:00 noon or until it is gone. Glenn passed away on September 30, 2021. His family and friends continue his passion by keeping the milk giveaway alive. To date, 2500 gallons of milk and 700 Farm Show milkshakes have been given out to the public. The milkshakes were donated to Tim Tebow's "Night to Shine", which is a prom for special needs young adults. Tell your friends and neighbors – let's keep Glenn's dream alive by ensuring everyone has milk.
