Esther – When God Seems Silent
Week 4 – Desperate Times Call For Godly Measures

Esther 4:1-16 NIV

When Mordecai learned of all that had been done, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the city, wailing loudly and bitterly. ² But he went only as far as the king's gate, because no one clothed in sackcloth was allowed to enter it. ³ In every province to which the edict and order of the king came, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping and wailing. Many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

⁴ When Esther's eunuchs and female attendants came and told her about Mordecai, she was in great distress. She sent clothes for him to put on instead of his sackcloth, but he would not accept them. ⁵ Then Esther summoned Hathak, one of the king's eunuchs assigned to attend her, and ordered him to find out what was troubling Mordecai and why.

⁹ Hathak went back and reported to Esther what Mordecai had said. ¹⁰ Then she instructed him to say to Mordecai, ¹¹ "All the king's officials and the people of the royal provinces know that for any man or woman who approaches the king in the inner court without being summoned the king has but one law: that they be put to death unless the king extends the gold scepter to them and spares their lives. But thirty days have passed since I was called to go to the king."

¹² When Esther's words were reported to Mordecai, ¹³ he sent back this answer: "Do not think that because you are in the king's house you alone of all the Jews will escape. ¹⁴ For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance for the Jews will arise from another place, but you and your father's family will perish. And who knows but that you have come to your royal position for such a time as this?"

¹⁵ Then Esther sent this reply to Mordecai: ¹⁶ “Go, gather together all the Jews who are in Susa, and fast for me. Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. I and my attendants will fast as you do. When this is done, I will go to the king, even though it is against the law. And if I perish, I perish.”

I. Desperation should lead us to being real with God and being real with others.

1 Peter 5:7 NIV – Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you.

- God wants you to bring the real you to Him.

II. Desperation should reignite our faith.

Esther 4:15-16

- Don't waste a challenging season. Let it reawaken you to your need for God.
- Fasting: Sacrificing the physical and expecting the supernatural.
- Crisis fasting → “We need God NOW.”
Regular Discipline of Fasting → “We need God ALWAYS.”

III. Desperation should lead us to taking action while expecting God to show up.

- There will be moments that you have to step up and step out in your faith.

2 Chronicles 16:9 CSB

“For the eyes of the LORD roam throughout the earth to show himself strong for those who are wholeheartedly devoted to him.

John 15:5 NIV

“I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing.
