Rev. De'Quon A. Quarles

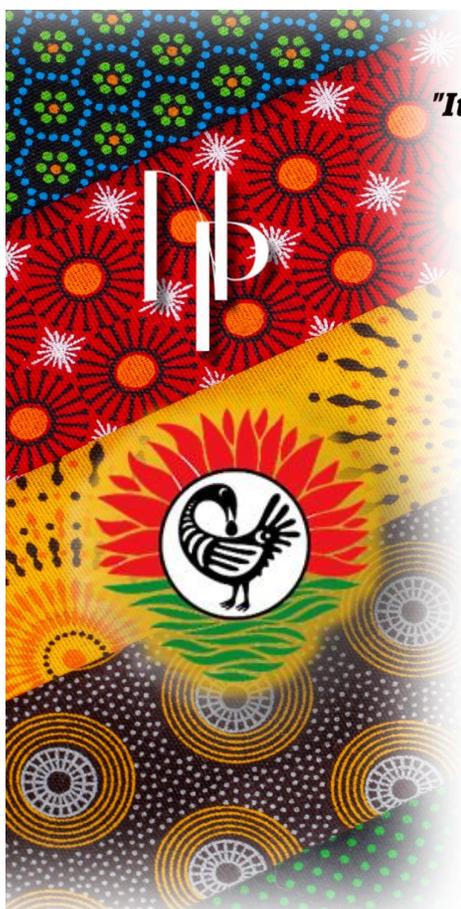

The Reverend De'Quon A. Quarles, born in Washington, D.C., and raised in Southern Maryland, began his journey into the Gospel Ministry at a young age. He was licensed and ordained by his father in the ministry, The Reverend Gregory Jerome Fisher, Th.D., at the Mount Hermon Baptist Church in Richmond, Virginia. His academic journey started at The Historic Virginia Union University, where he graduated Magna Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Religious Studies and a minor in Abnormal Psychology, a testament to his dedication to academic excellence and strong theological foundation.

Following his undergraduate tenure, Reverend Quarles served as the Resident Pastoral Intern and full-time Minister of Assimilation and Congregational Care of The First Baptist Church of Highland Park in Landover, Maryland, under the tutelage and pastorate of The Reverend Doctor Henry P. Davis, III, Senior Pastor. As the Minister of Assimilation for five years, Reverend Quarles instituted and established the Ministers in Training Institute, primarily responsible for teaching and training 20 unlicensed candidates for the Gospel Ministry. Reverend Quarles oversaw all new members, daily operational functions, and sacerdotal ministry opportunities at the instruction of the Senior Pastor.

To further his preparation for ministry and study of the African American Church and Systematic Theology, Reverend Quarles matriculated at The Historic and Prestigious School of Divinity at Howard University in Washington, DC, earning a Master of Divinity. Currently, Reverend Quarles is pursuing a Master of Education at American University School of Education. With a commitment to education and gospel-inspired transformation, Reverend Quarles has served as a Secondary History Instructor and Department Head at The National Christian Academy (Oxon Hill, MD) and an Elementary School Educator in Prince George's County, MD, and Richmond, VA. He also joined the National Bible College and Seminary as a Resident Theologian, teaching the Introduction to the New Testament Survey/Synoptic Gospels to seventy-five Adult Certificate Learners.

Reverend Quarles' commitment to social justice and community service is demonstrated through his civic work as a member of the NAACP's Prince George's County Branch, The Progressive National Baptist Convention, Inc. (PNBC), and The Baptist Convention of the District of Columbia and Vicinity. He is a proud member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Incorporated. In recognition of his distinguished contributions, Reverend Quarles was inducted into the 38th Annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Board of Preachers at Morehouse College in Atlanta, GA, in April 2024. Reverend Quarles will receive an honorary Doctor of Strategic Leadership from Wayland Baptist Theological Seminary this October 2025.

Reverend Quarles is happily married to The Reverend Melanie C. Jones Quarles, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Ethics, Theology, and Culture and Director of The Katie Geneva Cannon Center for Womanist Leadership at Union Presbyterian Seminary. The two joined in holy matrimony on September 10, 2023, at The Intercontinental Willard Hotel in Washington, DC. He resides with his family in Richmond, VA.
