

MOVING THE HAND THAT MOVES THE WORLD!

Daniel 11:32 IN THE LAST DAYS HE WILL INVADE THE EARTH WITH DECEPTION, FLATTER THOSE WHO HATE THE THINGS OF GOD AND WIN THEM OVER TO HIS SIDE... BUT THE PEOPLE WHO KNOW THEIR GOD SHALL BE STRONG AND DO EXPLOITS OR DO GREAT THINGS...

Read Revelation 20:1-8

In the Book of Revelation, the "beast" and the "false prophet" are figures associated with the end times and are described as working in opposition to God. The first beast, often identified as the Antichrist, is portrayed as a powerful, worldly leader who rises to power and demands worship.

The second beast, also known as the false prophet, is depicted as a religious figure who deceives people into worshipping the first beast and enforces the "mark of the beast".

Here's a more detailed breakdown:

The Beast (First Beast): Origin and Power:

The beast arises from the sea, symbolizing a worldly, political power. It receives its authority and power from the dragon (Satan).

Role:

The beast is a political and military leader who dominates the world and persecutes those who oppose him.

Symbolism:

It represents a counterfeit of Christ, a figure of worldly power and authority.

Identification:

Often identified as the Antichrist, a figure prophesied to arise in the end times.

The False Prophet (Second Beast): Origin and Appearance:

The false prophet emerges from the earth and is described as having "two horns like a lamb" but speaking like a dragon.

Role:

He performs signs and wonders to deceive people into worshiping the first beast. He also enforces the "mark of the beast".

Symbolism:

He is a religious deceiver who counterfeits the true prophets of God.

Deception:

He uses his power to lead people away from God and toward the worship of the first beast.

Identification:

The false prophet is often seen as a religious leader who works in tandem with the Antichrist.

Examples of Imagery and their Interpretations:Seven Stars and Candlesticks:

In chapter 1, the seven stars represent the leaders of the seven churches, and the candlesticks represent the churches themselves.

Four Horsemen:

In chapter 6, the four horsemen are symbols of war, conquest, famine, and death, representing the consequences of sin and the challenges faced by God's people.

Seven Seals, Trumpets, and Bowls:

These series of judgments release catastrophic events and demonstrate God's power over evil and his ultimate triumph.

The Whore of Babylon:

Often interpreted as representing the corrupting influence of Rome or worldly systems that oppose God.

Psalms 127:1-2 A Song of degrees for Solomon. Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain. It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.

Psalms 55:22 Cast thy burden upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.

I Peter 5:6-7 "Humble yourself under the mighty hand of God, (demote or lower yourself in your own estimation) and he will eventually exalt you as you leave the timing in his hands. casting all your cares [all your anxieties, all your worries, and all your concerns, once and for all] on Him, for He cares about you [with deepest affection, and watches over you very carefully."
