Expanding the Kingdom

Covenant, I am grateful that you have embarked on this journey of building a strong partnership as we move forward together in Vision 2030. The Apostle Paul writes in Romans 12:4-5, "For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office: So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another."

As members of the Body of Christ, I implore each of us to catch the vision, embrace the call, and accept the charge to expand the Kingdom of God.

AAs called out believers of Jesus Christ let us embody the presence of Jesus Christ daily. Jesus did not commission His disciples to maintain gatherings; He commissioned them to make disciples. The Great Commission was not an inward approach; it was an outward approach. In the early church believers were not focused on preserving comfort or protecting tradition. Instead, they transformed their communities through fervent prayer, bold witness, and sacrificial generosity.

We are called to move beyond maintenance to mission; from ritual to revival and renewal; from attending church to being the church; and from good intentions to Kingdom impact. This movement requires a shift in identity and urgency. Whether you are a minister, deacon, usher, choir member, greeter, parking attendant, or serve in any other ministry, I urge you to evaluate whether your energy is spent preserving traditions or expanding the Kingdom. Whether you are a youth, young adult, middle aged or senior; I urge you to be a Kingdom expanding ambassador in your homes, neighborhoods, schools, and workplaces. Expanding the Kingdom of God is a courageous call that is not consumer-driven but commission centered.

First Lady Ivory and I are humbled and grateful for the privilege of serving alongside each of you in expanding the Kingdom of God.

The Path to Salvation

God created us to have a personal relationship with Him, a relationship that was broken by sin. Yet, everyone can restore this relationship through the gift of salvation. 1 John 1:9 says, "If we confess our sins [to God], he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness." You can get started with this prayer:

"Dear Lord Jesus, I know that I am a sinner, and I ask for your forgiveness. I believe You died for my sins and rose from the dead. I commit my life to You as my Lord and Savior and invite You into my heart. This I pray in your Holy name. Amen."
