

“The Oxymoronic Nature of a Lazy Christian”

2 Thessalonians 3:6-18, NASB

Introduction: I’ll let you in on a little secret: the aim of a functional sermon title is to pique your interest and to give you a clue as to the focus/idea of the biblical text and SERMON.

Several Specifics:

What is an oxymoron?

- 1). A Specific Problem (v. 11).
- 2). A Specific Command (v. 6).
- 3). A Specific Exhortation (v. 12-13).
- 4). A Specific Designation (v. 14-15).

Conclusion:

Work is good. It is simply inconceivable in the Scripture that a Christian would not work, especially if you are able. Not to work, but to be idle and a busybody is condemned in Scripture.
