

“A Day in the Life of Job: A Healthy Perspective on Stuff”
2 Corinthians 9:6-15, NASB

Introduction: The character of Job in the Old Testament is fascinating. What can we learn from his life as it relates to stuff?

Two Key Ideas:

1). God Owns EVERYTHING (v. 21).

2). We ENTER this World with Nothing; We Will EXIT this World with Nothing (v. 21).

Jim Elliot said, “He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep to gain what he cannot lose.”

Martin Luther said, “I have held many things in my hand, and lost them all; but whatever I have placed in God’s hands, that I still possess.”

Conclusion: Should you rightly have any expectation of asking God to bless you if you give Him next to nothing of what He has entrusted to you?
