

“Ignorance Is No Excuse”

Acts 3:17-26, ESV

Current Series: The Book of Acts

Introduction: Do you ever wonder how many people are banking on their ignorance to get them past the judgment seat of God? Is it risky business to assume God will automatically forgive everybody? The grace put before people today is so cheap. Where is genuine repentance? Where is the fear of God? The Bible indicates that no one is without excuse (Romans 1:20). I pray you will listen closely to today’s sermon text.

Essential Ideas to Consider:

- 1). You acted in ignorance; God acted with divine intention (v. 17-18).
- 2). You must turn to God; God will send the Messiah (v. 19-21).
- 3). You must listen; God will raise up a prophet (v. 22-26).

Other Essentials:

- ❖ God is patient with sinners.
- ❖ Bad news/good news.
- ❖ The best defense of the truth of the Christian faith is a changed life.

Your Response?

Will you now give your heart to Jesus Christ?

Ignorance is no excuse. You have heard and are now responsible for what you have heard!
