Studying the Word of God

*My soul keeps your testimonies;
I love them exceedingly.*
- Psalm 119:167

The start of a new year is a fitting time to assess our spiritual growth and think about how we might make better use of the gifts of God's Word and prayer. Click here for some suggestions to consider.

Also, the byFaith devotion for December 11, 2025 (click here) by Dr. James Boice offers a simple, clear, helpful, and encouraging summary of why it's essential for Christians to maintain spiritual strength and a close relationship with Christ.

This Sunday Pastor Muhlfeld will preach from 2 Samuel 21:1–14 and his sermon title is Blood Atonement and New Life. He writes, "Deadly feuds, executions, and gathering buzzards do not seem like an encouraging way to ring in the New Year. But 2 Samuel 21 proclaims the blood atonement that turns away the wrath of God so that sinners like us may be forgiven and receive new life in Jesus Christ. Such news provides far more than a vague hope for the New Year. It provides the absolute assurance of God's covenantal grace to us in our Savior no matter what the year ahead may bring."
