Vacation Bible School Registration

Get ready for a wild adventure! VBS is less than a month away, and there are a variety of ways for you to get involved.

We could use many hands after church on June 28 to turn the church into a rainforest and many hands on Thursday evening, July 2 to return the church to its usual appearance.

Stop by the registration table to register your children (or use the online option here) and pick up invitations for your friends and neighbors. If you have any questions, see Sharon Muhlfeld.

Decorating opportunities will be available next week. Please consider donating 8x8x8 (or larger, preferably in height) cardboard boxes.

Praying that the Lord will use our congregation in a powerful way to reach out to our local community!

Book Discussion:
The Pursuit of God
by A.W. Tozer
Rob Barbadoro
Room 107

It is possible to know much about God without truly knowing or loving Him, to have a highly developed and ordered theology yet little to no intimacy with the One we are studying. A.W. Tozer recognized this weakness in the church of his time and endeavored to help those hungry for true spiritual nourishment to experience an intimate and satisfying relationship with the Lord when he wrote the Christian classic, The Pursuit of God (1948). Join us as we read and discuss Tozer's book so that we might know and love God more deeply and glorify Him more effectively with our lives.

Those participating in the upcoming adult Sunday school class on Tozer's The Pursuit of God should read the preface, Chapter 1, and Chapter 2 for the first session to be held on Sunday, June 14. Complimentary, first-come, first-served copies can be found on the table in the narthex.

This Sunday Juan Estevez will preach from 1 John 2:18–29 and his sermon title is Against the Tide, Abide. He writes, "In our sermon text, the Apostle John reminds his readers to abide in the message they first received, knowing that eternal life is at stake. They were to do so in the face of opposition that denied the message they had been given. Opposition was to be expected, however, because the last hour—along with many antichrists—had already arrived in John's day. We, too, should expect opposition as the Lord's return approaches, abiding in the message we have received so that we may not shrink from him in shame at his coming."
