*Call to Worship

Ashtyn Bratt

One: The tomb is dark, but empty.

All: The one you are looking for has overcome the darkness.

The stone has been rolled away.

The one you are looking for has overcome death.

The burial clothes are put aside.

The one you are looking for is alive!

Christ is risen!

Christ is risen indeed!

Let us worship our risen Savior!

*Hymn 232

*Prayer of Confession

Rev. Josh Andrzejewski

Almighty God, in raising Jesus from the grave, you shattered the power of sin and death. We confess that we remain captive to doubt and fear, bound by the ways that lead to death. We overlook the poor and the hungry, and pass by those who mourn; we ignore the cries of the oppressed, and are indifferent to calls for peace; we despise the weak, and abuse the earth you made. Forgive us, God of Mercy. Help us to trust your power to change our lives and make us new, that we may know the joy of life abundant given in Jesus Christ, our risen Lord.

*Passing of the Peace

*Hymn 240 (refrain)

“Alleluia, Alleluia! Give Thanks”

ALLELUIA NO. 1

Alleluia, alleluia! Give thanks to the risen Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia! Give praise to his name.

Sacrament of Baptism

Sloan Preston Hendrick
child of Ben and Catherine Hendrick

Rev. Mary Kay Collins

Please rise in body or in spirit.

*Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

During the singing of the baptismal hymn, children ages 4 years through 5th grade are invited to go to faith formation. They may be picked up on the playground after worship.

Baptismal Hymn 492

"You Belong to Christ"
You belong to Christ,
in whom you have been baptized.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Doxology

OLD HUNDREDTH

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise God, all creatures here below;
praise God above, ye heavenly host;
praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever.

Join us for Lemonade on the Lawn and enjoy refreshments and fellowship on the front lawn after worship! While you're there, take a picture in front of the Easter flower cross outside the Cary Street doors.

This month, we're holding a community forum on suicide prevention. All are welcome, especially teens and their families. You'll hear from Ray Paul, Jr., Chair of the National Board of the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention; and Erica Mann, Director of Learning and Special Projects, United Methodist Family Services. To learn more and submit a question for the forum, visit fpcrichmond.org/prevention or scan the QR code.
