

Biblical Principles of Marriage (Part 8) – Eph 5:22-33

Eph 5:22-33; It's good to be in the house of God on this 4th of July weekend; We have much to be thankful for in this country, and much to pray for including the institution of marriage – a long-standing pillar in our society. It's something we've been focusing on for 8 weeks now, and this is the last of it; The 8th and final message

And having found last week that husbands and wives are equal in value and worth, and mutually dependent on one another, we also found that . . .

Principle #8 – Wives should submit to their husband (v22-24)

That was principle #8; Voluntarily yield to the discretion and decisions of your husband, with joy; Not like a passive wallflower, but an active partner; That was last week

➤ This week, is the husband's responsibilities; The part all the wives have been waiting for; And quite frankly, the part that's least observed. I think more husbands fail in their responsibility, than wives; I really do. So it bears some attention; Which God gives, right here in Eph 5

[22] Wives, submit to your own husbands, as to the Lord. [23] For the husband is the head of the wife even as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior. [24] Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit in everything to their husbands.

[25] Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, [26] that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, [27] so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish.

[28] In the same way husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. [29] For no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as Christ does the church, [30] because we are members of his body.

[31] “Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.” [32] This mystery is profound, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church. [33] However, let each one of you love his wife as himself, and let the wife see that she respects her husband.

➤ Notice here, that Paul spends 3 verses on the wife's role in marriage, and 8½ verses on the husband's; Could he be telling us something? I think so. That a marriage usually turns or burns on the husband; On his attitude and behavior; Not all the time, but most; I think that's the reason for the disproportionate coverage

So husbands, if you get one thing right in your marriage, one principle out of all of them – make it this one

Principle #9 – Husbands should love their wife (v25a)

Love her; It's something you'd think goes without saying, but God knows our hearts; That we're prone to wander; And prone to be selfish

So he gives it as a command; v25 – Husbands, love your wives

As in care for her, and care about her

Even when she's not very loveable; Even when she doesn't submit very well

Even when she doesn't show you much respect

If she's your wife, if you said “I do” – love her; Period; That's what it says

➤ What it doesn't say, is rule over her; Subjugate her; Oppress her; Keep her under your thumb; That may be your tendency as a by-product of the Fall (Gen 3:16). And the inclination of your sin nature; But it's not God's design; And never was

He expects you to love your wife; Saying so 3 times in 8 verses – Love her, love her, and love her

Not in some sappy sort of way; Or conditionally – only when she loves you

But in a devoted sort of way; Independent of her response; Independent of her reciprocation; That's what the word means here

So an expanded version of v25 would read – Husbands, love your wives . . .

• With unwavering, unconditional devotion and affection

That's the idea; That's the kind of love God's talking about

Devotion and affection; Affection and devotion; Duty and delight

What he's not talking about is a convenient love; Where you express it only when you feel like it; Only when you're happy with her; Only when you're in the mood. It's all the time; And unwavering; Convenient or not

➤ And, it's unconditional; Which is just the opposite of what many husbands think. “I wouldn't have a problem loving her if she'd just submit” “Why would I treat her right if she doesn't treat me right?”
Is that you? If so, the answer to that question, is b/c that's what Jesus does for you

Why would you treat her right if she doesn't treat you right?

B/c that's what Jesus does for us; That's the love he models for the church

It's unwavering and unconditional

➤ And the thing is, he expects the same from you and me; Look at v25 again. Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church
Just like he loves us with an unwavering, unconditional devotion and affection, we are to love our wives with an unwavering, unconditional devotion and affection. Independent of her submission; Just like Christ loves us independent of ours

He expects it, husbands; And I think it's time that some of you re-kindle it; Refresh it; Recommit to it

And you can; You can do it; I don't care what the state of your marriage is

B/c God never calls us to a standard that he doesn't empower us to reach

In the strength that he supplies, you can do it; Love your wife

And do so, 2nd . . .

• As a servant-leader (v23; Lk 22:27)

That's the second part of your responsibility as a husband

V23 says that the husband is the head of the wife; Meaning, that he is her authority and leader; Not in the sense of a drill sergeant who barks out orders . . .

But a servant who makes life easier; Someone who leads the way and prepares the path, for those who are following; Biblical headship means servanthood

B/c once again, that's exactly what Jesus did as our head; And said so in . . .

Luke 22:27 – I am among you as the one who serves. He was servant-leader

And just before that he said – let the leader among you become as one who serves (26)

Including husbands in marriages

If you're going to love as Christ loved, you have to lead as he led; And he led by serving

By putting our needs ahead of his own; By seeking our good instead of his; By protecting us instead of himself*****

➤ It's like the tribal guys in the jungles of Papua New Guinea when we were over there As we walked on some of the jungle paths, they preceded us to make sure it was clear of danger – which we were very thankful for considering the pythons and centipedes
They made it safer

And sometimes they would wield their machetes to hack the vines or branches; Making it easier for us to follow

IOW they led us by serving us, and served us by leading us; Making our journey easier and safer; The very thing God has in mind for your wife, as you lead her

➤ Unfortunately, being a servant-leader in the context of your marriage, isn't nearly that cool; I mean, hey – if it was all about blazing a trail through the jungle . . .
I wouldn't even have to preach about it We'd be like – “Ya man; Give me the machetes and let's go; Just point the way Sweet-pea; I'm your Popeye”

But that's not where we live, is it?

Our servant-leadership happens in the kitchen; When she's cleaning up, and you want nothing more than to get to the easy chair

Or in the living room when she's folding clothes and you're surfing the web

Or on the weekend when she's stressed with the kids, and you want to golf

Or at the end of a day when she needs your attention to help with a decision

Those things are a long way from the jungle, and not nearly as sexy; But the trail of life is still hard, and dangers still lurk, men

And your wife needs a husband here, just like they need one there

Someone who leads her by serving her, and serves her by leading her; Someone who does things you don't like, to bless the one you do; Love her as a servant-leader

3rd, love her . . .

• Sacrificially (v25-27)

Which comes from the phrase in v25b, that says Christ gave himself up for her; He loved the church and gave himself up for her

Meaning, he sacrificed his life for ours; His glory, for our glory; His all, for us

And calls us to do the same; To give up our hopes, dreams, wants, wishes, interests, hobbies, aspirations, and goals – for our wives

Husbands, God calls you to give, and give up, everything; Everything; Just like he calls your wife to submit in everything

It's what Jesus did for us, and it's what he expects us to do for our wives; It couldn't be clearer

Love your wives [v25 says], as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her; Sacrificed everything for her

➤ I gotta tell you, my Dad is living this out before my very eyes these days My mom is in the early stages of Alzheimer's, and combined with the side effects of the pain medication that she takes for her back, life is becoming more and more difficult
So they recently decided to sell the farm and move to Nashville; Closer to family

Which may not sound like much, but for my Dad, it's a sacrifice

B/c it's the death of a dream; Living on some land, tinkering with the tractors, hunting at will, and blessing others; That's his element; And he's giving it up Sacrificing what he holds dear, to better care for his wife whom he loves And few things spur me on more, to do the same; To love my wife sacrificially; For better or for worse; In health and in sickness

➤ But once again, that's not where most of us live; Most of us are grinding it out in the routine of life where our sacrifice, or lack thereof . . .
Is seen in a multitude of little decisions; Seemingly inconsequential decisions

But they add up; And either dis-courage our wives toward holiness and godliness, or en-courage them; And that's the point of the sacrifice It's not just for the sake of health, or well-being, or happiness in your wife; But godliness; Christlikeness; Sanctification; V26-27

Jesus gave himself up for the church – [26] That [indicating that what follows is the reason for the sacrifice] he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, [27] so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish.

➤ The goal of Christ's sacrifice on the cross, was to set apart, or sanctify for himself – a people who are pure and without blemish And he did that by cleansing us, or washing away our sin, with the truth of his word – the promise of forgiveness and salvation
Which is applied to our lives by his Spirit, through faith and repentance
That's the gist of these verses

And as a husband, your goal should be the same – to encourage your wife toward that righteousness and godliness
To expose her to the cleansing truth of God's Word
To see her grow in the beauty of holiness and purity That's your goal – her sanctification; Even if it means your sacrifice; Even if it means giving up everything

Love her with an unwavering, unconditional devotion and affection; Love her as a servant-leader; And love her sacrificially

And then last, love her . . .

• As yourself (v28-33)

Love your wife as yourself; V28

In the same way [the same way as Jesus, like we just described] . . .

Husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. And then he repeats it in v33 – let each one of you love his wife as himself Love and care for her as you do your own body, and love her like you love yourself, prefer yourself, think of yourself 2 bookends to frame his point

And in between, he gives us 3 reasons:

1. She's one with you

Your wife is a part of your own body; Do you realize that? She is And Paul confirms it in v31, by citing Gen 2:24 – the two shall become one flesh
He quotes Genesis, to support his statement in v28, that he who loves his wife loves himself; B/c the two, are one Just like God commanded and ordained at the beginning of time Which means, husbands, that you should love your wife as yourself, b/c in God's eyes, she is yourself; You're one

2. It's the natural thing to do

V29 says – No one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it Just like self-mutilation isn't natural, neither is hating your wife; Or treating her like you do; What is natural, is nourishing and cherishing her B/c once again, she's a part of you; She's one with you

And 3rd, love your wife as yourself, b/c . . .

3. That's what Jesus does

He loves us, as his own body
V29-30 – No one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as Christ does the church because we are members of his body.
B/c he loves us as his body, we should love our wives as ours; That's the point; Follow his example; 3 reasons (Summary)

➤ Then, just to make sure we don't miss the main point of all this, he says in v32 . . .
This mystery is profound – this mystery of oneness; This mystery of relationship; This mystery of deep, sacrificial, selfless love It's profound, and it refers [Paul says] to Christ and the church

IOW, your marriage is not just about you

In fact, it's primarily meant to display the beauty, unity, and intimacy between Christ and the church; That's the main point Which makes marriage a picture, and your life, the canvas

Your relationship as husband and wife, is a life-size mural of Christ's relationship with us, the church; Giving tangible, everyday expression to an intangible, glorious truth That's primarily what marriage is about; It's a picture of us and Jesus, as one

➤ But that doesn't negate the very practical aspects that he ends with; Saying in v33 . .
However [as in, despite the fact that this is primarily about Christ and the church] let each one of you love his wife as himself, and let the wife see that she respects her husband. (Summary)

Two sides of the same coin in marriage – love and respect And 2 principles on which to base your marriage, for a life built to last

Pray – God, forgive us of our failures in these things; Wash us anew with the truth of your word and the grace of your forgiveness; And find us faithful to live it out We give now, with glad and generous hearts, for all that you've given us; Whether it's the advantages of being single, or the joys of being married
