

The Week of:

March 22, 2023

What's your life like:

Day light savings time – love it or hate it?

Are you sad that winter is coming to an end and the beautiful snow will be gone? Or are you excited for it all to melt and for spring/summer to get here?

What are we talking about this week:

Main Point of Message:

- It's wise to build your entire life on a firm foundation – Jesus.

Bible Verses

- Matthew 7: 24-27

Discussion Questions

1. Over the past few weeks, what have you been learning about parables? How do they help you grow in your faith?
2. Did this parable teach you anything new about God or change the way you view who God is at all?
3. Why is it easy to "hear and do" some things Jesus teaches, but "hear and don't" other things?
4. How would you describe what it means to build your life on Jesus as your firm foundation?
5. How would you describe a "storm" in life? Give some different examples of what that looks like.
6. If you're comfortable sharing, what are some storms you've gone through?
7. Are you "hearing" on a consistent basis? How? Give examples of what that looks like for you.
8. Are you "doing" what Jesus says? How? Give example of what that looks like for you.

Now what:

- The wise HEAR and DO. The foolish HEAR and DON'T. This week, be intentional to make space in your life to hear Jesus and then find ways to do what he teaches. Daily habits of hearing and doing is what builds a foundation that can withstand any storm of life.
