Article 1: Name and Location

Section 1.1: Name

The name of this church shall be Grace Chapel, Inc.

Section 1.2: Location

Grace Chapel is a multi-site church whose principal location is Lexington, Massachusetts.

Article 2: Purpose

Section 2.1

The purpose of this church shall be to promote the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ. It shall seek this end through the public worship of God, the preaching of the Gospel, consistent Christian living by its members, personal evangelism, missionary endeavor, Christian community, prayer, and Christian education.

Section 2.2

Believing that the Church of Jesus Christ is One Church, and is One Body, whose Head is Jesus Christ, this church is pledged to work with all who love the Lord Jesus and look for His appearance. To this end, Grace Chapel shall be constituted as a church, wherein all of those who love Jesus Christ and desire to serve Him may join in one common effort. Those elements that have caused confusion and division in the past within the Church of Jesus Christ shall not be permitted to destroy the unity of the body. To this end, this church shall be sympathetic and tolerant in spirit with respect to those areas of fellowship with the body of Christ in which Bible believing Christians have held different points of view. The Statement of Faith (Article 3) to which this church adheres finds its general expression in all of the great confessions of the true Church of Jesus Christ.

Section 2.3

To legally implement this purpose, this church is incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, so that duly authorized persons can, in the name of Grace Chapel, Inc., buy, sell, own, lease, mortgage, or otherwise handle real estate, or carry on any business transaction pertinent to the maintaining of this church.
1 - The Bible

We believe that the Bible, consisting of sixty-six books of the Old and New Testaments, was given by Divine inspiration and is the Word of God (2 Tim. 3:16,17; 2 Peter 1:19-21; I Thess. 2:13).

That it constitutes the only perfect rule and final authority in all matters pertaining to Christian faith and practice (Acts 17:11; Isa. 8:20).

2 - The Godhead

We believe there is only one living and true God, the Creator, Preserver, and Ruler of the universe (Gen. 1:1; Heb. 11:3; Neh. 9:6; Heb. 1:2, 3; Psalm 103:19; Eph. 1:11) perfect, infinite, and eternal (Matt. 5:48; I Kings 8:27; Psalm 90:2) and that He is unchangeable in His being, wisdom, power, holiness, justice, goodness, love and truth (Mal. 3:6; I Tim. 1:17; Gen 17:1; Isa. 6:3; Psalm 19:9; Ex. 34:6; John 3:16).

We believe God eternally exists in three Persons, namely, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, Who are equal in Their Divine perfection and harmonious in the execution of their distinct offices (Matt. 28:19; John 5:17; John 14:16, 17; John 15:26; Eph. 2:18).

3 - The Father

We believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth. He is Father to His eternal Son, Jesus Christ, whom He raised from the dead, by and for His glory (Matt. 11:25; Luke 10:21; 1 Cor. 8:6; Eph. 1:3; Rom. 6:4; Phil. 2:9-11). He is also Father to all who are adopted as His sons and daughters through faith in Jesus Christ (Gal. 4:5-6; Eph. 1:5). He has made himself known to us through His Son, through the Spirit and through the Scriptures, and has blessed us in Christ with every blessing of the Spirit (1 Cor. 2:10; Eph. 1:3; 3:5; Heb. 1:1-3). He has sovereignty over us, affection toward us, and glory for us (1 Cor. 15:27-28; John 3:16; 2 Thess. 2:16; 1 John 3:1). To Him belong all glory and honor (1 Pet. 4:11; Gal. 1:5).

4 - The Son

We believe that, in the fullness of time, the eternally pre-existent Son humbled Himself and assumed human nature by being born of the Virgin Mary, thus uniting organically and indissolubly the Divine and human natures in their completeness in the unique Person of Jesus Christ ( Isa. 9:6, Matt. 1:18-25; John 1:14; I Tim. 3:16; Heb. 2:14).

We believe that God has provided redemption for humanity through the mediatorial work of Christ, Who voluntarily offered Himself on Calvary as a perfect sacrifice for sin, the just suffering for the unjust, bearing sin's curse, and tasting death for everyone (Matt. 20:28; Heb. 9:11, 12; I Pet. 3:18; Gal. 3:13; Heb. 2:9; I Tim. 2:5, 6).

We believe that on the third day He rose from the dead in the body, which had been laid in the tomb. He ascended into heaven where He reigns at the right hand of the Father, where He performs the ministry of intercession and from where He must reign until all things are in full submission to His Lordship. He shall come again, personally and visibly, to complete His saving work and to consummate the eternal plan of God.

5 - The Holy Spirit

We believe that the Holy Spirit is the third Person of the Trinity and that He proceeds from the Father and the Son (John 15:26); His principal ministry, since His advent at Pentecost, is to reprove or convict the world of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment (John 16:8-11); to restrain the progress of evil until God’s purposes are accomplished (2 Thess. 2:7); to bear witness to the truth preached (Acts 5:30-32); to regenerate those who repent of their sins and exercise faith in Christ (John 3:3-8; Titus 3:5); to instruct, comfort and guide God’s children (John 14:16-18, 26; 16:13); to sanctify them (2 Thess. 2:13; 1 Peter 1:1-3); to empower them for life and service (Rom. 8:2; Acts 1:8; Eph. 3:16; 1 Cor. 2:1-4; 1 Thess. 1:5); and to give life to their mortal bodies (Rom. 8:11).

6 - Humanity

(a) Our Creation

We believe that human beings were created by a special act of God; that we were created in the image and likeness of God, possessing personality and innocence; that we were endowed with power of rational and responsible choice in view of moral ends; and that the purpose of his creation was to glorify God (Gen. 1:27; Col. 3:10; Acts 17:24-28).

(b) Our Fall

We believe Adam and Eve were subject to trial in the Garden of Eden in order to test their loyalty to their Maker (Gen 2:15-17). Under trial, they lost their holy estate, were alienated from God and became depraved physically, mentally, morally and spiritually, by voluntarily transgressing His positive command and yielding to the enticement of Satan. In consequence of the fact of disobedience, the entire human race became involved in guilt and in corruption so that in every heart there is, by nature, that evil disposition which eventually leads to irresponsible acts of sin and to just condemnation (Gen. 3:1-6; Rom. 5:12, 18; 3:10-12, 23; 1:19-31; Eph. 4:18; I John 1:8-10).

7 - Salvation

We believe that salvation is wholly of grace (Eph. 2:8-9; Titus 3:5); being planned by the Father, provided by the blood of the Son, and applied by the Holy Spirit (Eph. 1:1-3; John 3:3-5). In justification the believer is absolved of his guilt and declared righteous in the sight of God (Rom. 5:1, 9; 4:4, 5; Acts 13:39). In adoption the believer is constituted a member of the household of God (Rom. 8). In regeneration the principle of a new life is implanted in our hearts (John 3:3; Titus 2:14). In sanctification the principle of the new life is strengthened and developed increasingly (Rom. 6:8). In glorification this work will come to its perfect culmination in an ultimate and complete renewal of human nature (1 Cor. 13: 1 John 5:11-13). Repentance and faith are essential attitudes to be found in any one person who rightly claims the blessing of salvation. They emphasize the fact that it is not through human merit of any kind but the grace of God that redemption is achieved.

8 - The Church

We believe that the Church invisible and universal is an organism composed of the redeemed of all ages. We believe that the Church is manifest locally and visibly through companies of believers in Christ, voluntarily joined together and meeting at stated times for worship, to observe the ordinances (Acts 2:46, 47; 20:7; 1 Cor. 16:2; Acts 6:1-6; 14:23); that it is the duty of the Church to give the Gospel as a witness to all people (Matt. 28:18-20; Acts 1:8), to build itself up in the most holy faith (Jude 20, 21; Eph. 4:11-12, 16; Acts 20:32), and to glorify God (1 Peter 4:11).
9 - Ordinances

We believe that Christian ordinances are outward rites appointed by Christ, not as a means of salvation, but as visible signs and seals of the facts and realities of salvation.

(a) Baptism

We believe that baptism by water is the public confession of Christ as Savior and Lord. It is a symbol of one’s union, by faith, with Christ in death, burial, and resurrection, and, therefore, is to be administered to those who have given evidence of faith in Christ as their personal Savior (Matt. 28:19; Mark 16:16; Acts 2:38-41; Rom. 6:3-5; Col. 2:12; Acts 8:36-39).

(b) The Lord’s Supper

We believe that the Lord’s Supper should be observed by all believers in obedience to the command: “This do in remembrance of Me.” It consists in partaking of the consecrated emblems of bread and wine; and symbolizes the death of Christ for the remission of our sins and our continual dependence upon Him for our sustenance. It witnesses that mystical union of the believer with Christ (John 15). The union of believers around the Lord’s table should be open to all who are in right relationship one with another, and with the Lord, (Matt. 26: 26-30; Luke 22:19-20; 1 Cor. 10: 11:23-26).

10 - Last Things

We believe that at the end of the age, Christ will descend from Heaven, the dead shall be raised bodily, that they shall be judged by God, and that those redeemed will enter into full possession of eternal bliss in the presence of God, and the wicked shall be condemned to eternal death. (1 Pet. 4:7; 1 Cor. 7:29-32; Heb. 1:10-12; Acts 1:11; Acts 24:15; Matt. 25:31-46).
Article 4: Church Covenant

We believe that the Holy Spirit of God has drawn us to follow Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior. We have publicly confessed our faith and have been baptized. Following in the footsteps of the saints who have gone before us, we both joyfully and thoughtfully enter into covenant with one another in the presence of God, the angels and the people of this fellowship.

Empowered by the Holy Spirit, we commit to a common life, which is characterized by the love of Christ. Together we will do all we can to pursue Godly knowledge, holiness, spiritual care and the expansion of this fellowship. We will regularly engage in worship and the celebration of baptism and communion. We will hold one another accountable to the discipline of Christ-likeness, and we will ground our lives in Christian doctrine. We will contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor and the spread of the gospel through all the nations.

We pledge to engage in family and private worship, to teach our children the ways of Christ and the content of Scripture. We commit to speak of our faith to our friends and family. In the world beyond the church, we will strive to live Christ-like lives. In our work, we will be honorable; in our commitments and vows, we will be faithful. And in our personal behavior, we will be people of integrity. We renounce the temptations to gossip and uncontrolled anger. We will be restrained in our wants and responsible in the use of our money. Our behavior and relationships will conform to the moral standards set forth in scripture. When we fall short of those standards, we will respond in repentance, receiving God’s forgiveness and His grace to pursue a godly lifestyle. We will be advocates of biblical justice and reconciliation in human affairs. We will resist evil and any appearance of it that offends others. In contrast, we will do all we can to advance the kingdom of God.

We will care for one another in Christian love. We will pray for one another, come to each other’s aid in times of sickness and difficulty. We will be sensitive to each other’s feelings and respectful toward one another in our communications. When we have been offended, we will not strike back. And when we have done wrong, we will acknowledge our responsibility. Together we will pursue the ways of forgiveness and reconciliation, and, as Jesus taught, to do it as quickly as possible.

Finally, we promise that if the day comes when we are led of God to leave this congregation, we will unite as soon as possible with another congregation where we can continue our commitment to the spirit of this covenant and the teaching of God’s Word.

(Covenant adopted 2 June 1996)

Section 16.1: Division

In the event that the membership of the church becomes divided in its beliefs, doctrines, policies, practices, conduct, or any other aspects relating to the purposes for which this church was formed, and with the result that the division creates individual groups unable to work together with common effort to accomplish the purposes for which this church was formed, then, in such event, the ownership and operation of the property, and all of its facilities, together with the name of this church, shall be vested with that group which, by its convictions and practices, continues with the Statement of Faith, as submitted to and approved by the members.

Section 16.2: Dissolution

2) One-third of such residual sum to the theological school in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts with the largest enrollment of students being trained for the ministry and which conducts its educational program under Statement of Faith similar to that adopted by this church. In the event that there is not a qualified school in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, then a school in any other state may be selected which meets the qualification of agreement with Article 3: Statement of Faith as defined in these Bylaws.

3) One-third of such residual sum divided equally among all organizations, which shared in the Missionary Budget of this church for the most recent fiscal year of the church.
In the event that there was no Missionary Budget in the most recent fiscal year, then the Board of Elders will give the entire one-third of the residual sum to a missionary

Appendices

Appendix A: Principles of Church Leadership

"For we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, God's building. According to the grace of God, which was given me, as a wise master builder, I laid a foundation, another is building upon it. But let each man be careful how he builds upon it." (I Cor. 3:9 & 10)

God's plan for leadership is revealed in Scripture. He launched the Church by giving certain individuals specific gifts "--apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers." These believers under the direction of the Holy Spirit initiated the Christian movement and brought local churches into existence through their teaching and preaching. (Eph. 4:11-13 and Rom. 15:20)

"For this reason I left you in Crete that you might set in order what remains, and appoint elders in every city as I directed you." (Titus 1:5)

"Be on guard for yourselves and for all the flock among whom the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the Church of God which He purchased with His own blood." (Acts 20:28)

As churches were established in the faith, and when more than one person became qualified, elders were appointed to continue the pastor-teaching ministry in each local church. To the elders was given the ultimate responsibility for the oversight of that particular church body, and the shepherding of its members. (Acts 20:28; I Tim. 3:1-7; Acts 14:23; Titus 1:5-9; I Tim. 5:17; I Peter 5:1-4; Acts 20:28-32)

"Let the elders who rule well be considered worthy of double honor, especially those who work hard at preaching and teaching." (I Tim. 5:17)

Some elders would give more time to the spiritual leadership than others and would be called to fill more demanding responsibilities. They therefore would be worthy of "double honor" (usually understood as monetary compensation.)

"And the twelve summoned the congregation of the disciples and said, 'It is not desirable for us to neglect the word of God in order to serve tables. But select from among you brethren, seven men of good repute, full of the spirit and of wisdom, who we may put in charge of this task.'" (Acts 6:2-3)

As necessary, Assisting Elders were also appointed to serve the church, particularly in undertaking those areas of need that would otherwise prohibit the elders and other leaders (pastor and staff) from performing their Biblical responsibilities. (Acts 6:1-7)

These leaders, along with all members of each local body form a unique organism--a visible and functioning expression of the universal Church. Grace Chapel recognizes this Biblical pattern for the plurality of godly leadership, under the oversight and watchcare of elders and the supportive leadership of Assisting Elders.

"Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they keep watch over your souls as those who will give account. Let them do this with joy, not grief, for this would not be profitable for you." (Heb. 13:17)

In response to the Biblical pattern of leadership, members of the body are taught in Scripture to lovingly support their leaders and to submit to their leadership. (I Cor. 16:16 and I Thess. 5:12 & 13)
Appendix B: The Biblical Role of Elders

1. Shepherd the Flock:

Serving in all humility, elders are to guide, direct, guard and protect the members of the body, seeking to meet their needs and assist in any way possible, warning against harmful influences and guarding against false teachers. (Acts 20:28ff and I Pet. 5:1-3)

2. Lead Through Example:

Elders are to provide a Scriptural role model and are to set a pattern before the flock of a rightly ordered life—with a single purpose, to glorify God. (I Pet. 5:3)

3. Teach and Exhort:

Elders are to see that the flock is fed through insightful and accurate Biblical instruction and admonition. (I Tim. 3:2; Titus 1:9)

4. Refute Those Who Contradict Truth:

Elders are to confront those who are teaching what they should not teach or who are continuing in a pattern of behavior contradictory to Biblical truth. Thus, are to keep closing potential entrances for Satan, so that the truth of Christ will remain credible to both the congregation and the community. (Acts 20:29-31; Titus 1:9)

5. Manage the Church of God:

Elders are to oversee the life of the church, with the assistance of Assisting Elders and other godly leaders. They must be people who can "rule well." (I Tim. 3:5 and 5:7)

6. Pray for the Sick:

Elders are to pray for the spiritual and physical well being of members of the congregation. (James 5:14)
Appendix C: The Biblical Qualifications for Elders

"An overseer then must be above reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, prudent, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, not addicted to wine or pugnacious, but gentle, not contentious, free from the love of money. He must be one who manages his own household well, keeping children under control with all dignity...and not a new convert, he must have a good reputation with those outside the church so he may not fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.” (I Tim. 3:2-7)

"If a man be above reproach, the husband of one wife, having children who believe, not accused of dissipation or rebellion...above reproach as God's steward, not self-willed, not quick-tempered, not addicted to wine, not pugnacious, not fond of sordid gain, but hospitable, loving what is good, sensible, just, devout, self-controlled, holding fast the faithful word...that he may be able both to exhort in sound doctrine and refute those who contradict.” (Titus 1:6-9)
