“Holy Water”

Sending Forth & Blessing

The World Cup gathers nations around a field. The Church gathers the world around a table. Our sermon series will explore how the rhythms of soccer—belonging and teamwork, practice and witness—illuminate what it means to live as Christ’s body in the world. Each week, we will connect “the beautiful game” with the call to communion, discovering how God invites us into a global community of grace where everyone belongs, everyone matters, and everyone has a purpose.

SERMON NOTES:

Please join us on Wednesday nights for casual, shortened worship experiences in our outdoor chapel, beginning July 8. (The four evening services will be entirely different from Sunday morning worship.) This week’s questions to ponder:
- What does freedom mean to you?

Join us on Wednesday at 6:30 to answer the questions!

Midwest Mission Sleeping Mats in Fellowship Hall
Spend a few minutes weaving sleeping mats for unhoused persons or victims of natural disasters on the loom in the Fellowship Hall.
