Why is Genesis 3 foundational to a proper Christian worldview? What does Genesis 3 show us as we try to understand all of the brokenness around us?

Why is it important for believers to know that Satan is crafty? How does this directly affect us?

When the Bible describes Satan, how is he most often described in relation to believers? What does I Peter 5:8 say regarding Satan and how we should live in light of his presence? What do you think it looks like to be “sober-minded” and “watchful”?

Why do you think Satan approaches Eve by questioning what God said? How do we see this tactic manifested among false teachers in our world today?

What does Eve’s response to the serpent in verses 2-3 reveal about her understanding, or lack thereof, of what God actually commanded? How does this show us the importance of rightly understanding God’s Word to us?

What parallels are present between Eve’s seeing, delighting, and desiring in Genesis 3 and John’s words in 1 John 2:15-16? How is this process manifested in our own temptations today?

What are some lessons we can learn from Adam and Eve’s sinning in the garden that will help us to overcome temptation in our own lives? How can we grow in our own fight against temptation?
