What does the way in which God approaches Adam and Eve in the garden following their rebellion tell us about God and how He deals with sinners? Why is this really good news for us?

Because of sin, Adam was now afraid when he heard God's presence among him. In what ways does sin bring fear into our lives? How is fear dispelled according to 1 John 4:18?

When confronted about his sin, Adam chose to blame others. Why do we so often blame people or circumstances for our sin? How do we guard against falling into this pattern as believers?

In the garden, the Serpent worked to deceive and tempt Eve. But what does James 1:13-15 tell us about the source of temptations for human beings? Knowing this, how should this change the way we view our battle against sin as believers?

Why is it a gracious work of God to expose our sin and help us to see it? Through what means does God work to reveal our sin to us today?
