What evidences do we find in our culture that it is weary? How do we as Christians process these realities?

What specifically has caused you to be weary during this season of life? How can your growth group pray for you in regard to your wearying trials?

What was unique about the serpent's judgment in Genesis 3? What does this judgment tell us about his final fate? Why should this bring us great hope as we battle Satan in our own lives?

This passage clarifies exactly what Satan's posture is toward God and His people for all eternity. What evidences do we find in the Old and New Testaments of Satan's hostility toward God's people?

Why might it be helpful for us to be aware of Satan's attacks throughout Scripture? What do we learn about Satan that helps us as we try to defend against his attacks?

How does Genesis 3:15 provide great hope for believers? What are some ways that we can more regularly remind ourselves of this hope as we live in this weary world?
