Read Psalm 139:1-18 to get the Scripture passage back in your mind.

Discuss

Why is David overwhelmed by the reality that God knows everything about him yet still chooses to have a relationship with him? Why should this reality overwhelm us today?

Has there ever been a time when you felt like God was distant? What caused you to feel that way?

In what ways does Psalm 139 remind us that God is present everywhere? How can we grow in believing that God is always present among us?

What does God's care and attention to His intimate work of creating life in the womb teach us about Him? What does this teach us about the significance of every baby in the womb?

What does it mean to be "fearfully and wonderfully made"? How does this inform our understanding of those who are born with disabilities?

How can believers support the sanctity of life in our culture today? What are ways we can support the sanctity of life of those both inside and outside of the womb?
