What's the largest gathering of people you have ever been a part of? Take some time to reflect on the multitude that John references in Revelation 7:9. What does the size and makeup of this multitude reveal to us about God and His work in salvation?

Some time was given reflecting on the lamb motif throughout the Old and New Testaments. How does this show the connectedness of Scripture from beginning to end? Is there an aspect of the lamb motif that you find particularly encouraging? Why?

What do you think service to God in eternity will look like according to Revelation 7:15? How does Scripture inform your understanding?

When was the last time you slowed down and just reflected on what it will be like to be in God's presence for all eternity? Take some time, perhaps an hour one day this week, to read Revelation 21-22 and reflect on what that will be like. What encouraged you about this exercise? What questions do you have?

What comes to mind when you think of the imagery of the Lamb of God being our Shepherd? Take time to reflect on the fulness of care and love that comes from Jesus as both the Lamb and our Shepherd.
