I would like to take this opportunity to offer a most heartfelt thank you for the gifts and cards that I have received within the last 2 months. Your thoughtfulness and generosity has meant the world to me. Thanks for your words of encouragement, your hugs of love, your gracious spirit, and many delicious homemade gifts. Thanks as well for the generous gift cards to various places with the Maple Grove community. Thank you for your giving, gracious spirit... I count it a real joy and privilege to serve among you at Cross Winds Church. With a sincere and grateful heart ~ Pastor Dianne

It certainly takes a village, both in raising children as well as supporting people undergoing surgery and recuperating in a hospital. I would like to thank all of the Cross Winds members that sent cards and food, and, more importantly, sent the many prayers during my heart bypass surgery. I truly felt all of the prayers, and those, combined with the prayer shawl that I wore all during the surgery and recovery, provided an incredible support during a period of much anxiety. I would like to say THANK YOU and look forward to continuing God's work and mission with our congregation. ~ Tim Peschman

"The Gift Of Winter"

The cold has really descended on us in Minnesota. There is not much snow to speak of but the temperatures have conspired to remind us where we live and what we are made of. This morning as I walked out to roll the garbage can to the curb for its pickup later today, I had that feeling of my airways freezing that I have yet to experience this winter. I smiled as much as my frozen cheek muscles would allow. So, I suppose it is time to settle in and remember the gifts of cold, frosty winter life.

Yesterday morning in my home, I was offered just such a gift. While getting ready for a full day ahead, I opened the drapes in my bedroom and saw something that took my breath away. The window glass, itself a kind of victim of winter's harsh winds, was swathed in what at first glance looked like lace. It was so incredibly beautiful and intricate that I just stood there taking in this gift of winter. Its patterns seemed impossible. How could something so beautiful be created without intention?

Now there was a question to carry around for the day! I have no idea how ice crystals or patterns form. Whatever Science class I took back in the day that explained this probably went right over my head. I now regretted how my single-minded wishing to participate in something other than Science class left me unable to understand how the combination of water, condensation, cold air and sun could create such an amazing pattern, such a work of art.

You see, the pattern not only looked like lace but also like a tree. A tree in the forest of the Winter Queen. The patterns had formed as if painted on the glass with some unseen hand who knew just what we needed to wake us up on a frigid morning in the midst of all that is happening in the world. Just what we needed to send us out into the world with praise on our lips and awe in our hearts. Just what we needed to remind us that there is a creative Hand in the world that is not ours.

Later in the day I thought of all the other patterns in this wide and wonderful world that may seem to be without intention. The center of a tulip for instance as it breaks forth in fireworks or a newborn's feathery eyelashes. The way in which the sun can reflect off one of the cut glass ornaments I keep hanging on the sliding glass doors, creating tiny rainbows all over the walls just as the sun is setting each day. The rivulets of water that spin and then spiral over the rocks in a stream.

It is easy for me to get caught up in the things I can understand and make sense of in some ordered way. But every now and then it is good to have a wakeup call that reminds me of all the wonders I cannot, and will never be able to understand. That is where awe walks in to take up residence and I am once again reminded of being a tiny part of a Universe that continues to expand and amaze. In that instant I am reminded of my work here: To stay awake. To notice. To be amazed. To tell the story. To be filled with gratitude.

There are many experiences that can remind us of the treasures of winter. For those of you reading this who are also experiencing the rush of freezing temperatures, my hope and prayer is that you are offered a gift of winter this day. Keep your eyes and heart open for the lace that is being spun all around. If we have eyes to see.

*As one on the journey with you,
Pastor Dianne*

Worship

February 1 - Communion

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

In the United Methodist Church, communion is a means of grace and a holy mystery where Christ is spiritually present and the invitation is open to all.

February 8 - Love Boldly

Matthew 22:34-39

We passionately love God and, like Jesus, embrace and include people of every age, nation, race, gender, and walk of life.

February 15 - Serve Joyfully & Lead Courageously

Psalm 100; Ephesians 6:10

With the heart of Christ, we journey alongside the most vulnerable among us, offering care and compassion with joy and lead courageously by following the example of Jesus.

February 18: Ash Wednesday - A Clean Heart

Psalm 51:1-7; 2 Corinthians 5:20b-6:10

Though Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of our Lenten journey, we must remember that all long journeys begin not with the first step or rolling down the road, but with preparation.

February 22 - Mercy on the Wilderness Road

Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11

Where is mercy in the wilderness? This is a driving question behind the first Sunday in Lent. Every year, we begin Lent by joining Jesus in the wilderness, witnessing the temptation, and examining what Jesus' temptation means for us. This year, we come to the wilderness afresh, ready to pay attention and encounter mercy at work in the midst of temptation, distress, and the help that comes along the way.

THE CHARACTER OF GOD

WEDNESDAYS: JANUARY 7- FEBRUARY 11
SUNDAYS: JANUARY 11- FEBRUARY 15

The Character of God Study

Wednesdays Jan 7 through Feb 11, 6:30pm
Sundays Jan 11 through Feb 15, 9:00am

Discover the core attributes of God as described in the book of Exodus. Our key verse is: "The Lord, the Lord, the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness." (Exodus 34:6). This verse invites us into a lifetime of pondering the depths and mysteries of the character of God. This six-week series is based on the "Character of God Word Study" from The Bible Project and features short videos to introduce each topic, followed by exploration of related scriptures.

Note: The same session held on Wednesday will be on the following Sunday.

Lenten Study with Pastor Lori

Sundays February 22-March 29

A companion book is available for $12,
but is not necessary for the class.

Lenten Study

Sundays Feb 22-March 29, 9:00am

During Lent each year, many Christians give up something as an act of sacrifice and spiritual discipline, like chocolate, knowing that after Easter Sunday we can once again enjoy what we have given up. This study, though, encourages us to seek God's help to focus on eliminating one habit or attitude that is destructive: things like envy, self-pity, gossip or resentment. Join Pastor Lori on Sunday mornings at 9 a.m. beginning on February 22 and running through March 29. A companion book is available at church for $12, but not necessary for the class.

Caring Ministries

The Cross Winds Caring Ministry would like to add to their current team. The Care Team aims to provide support, care and a sense of community to individuals. We will be focusing on four specific areas: Communion Ministry, Meal Ministry, Card Ministry and Visitation Ministry. If you would like to learn more or are interested in heading up any of these please fill out a connection card or contact the church office.
