

SCRIPTURE FOCUS - 18:15-17

People were bringing babies to Jesus so that he would bless them. When the disciples saw this, they scolded them. Then Jesus called them to him and said, "Allow the children to come to me. Don't forbid them, because God's kingdom belongs to people like these children. I assure you that whoever doesn't welcome God's kingdom like a child will never enter it."

REFLECTION - A Holy Week

This week, we enter the Christian week known as "Holy Week," a time dedicated to remembering Jesus' final week as he was crucified, died, and rose again. In the suffering of Christ, we are invited to see how God joins us in our suffering. In the resurrection of Christ, we are encouraged to see how God is more powerful than even sin and death. The worst thing is never the last thing with Jesus. Hope. New life. Miracles. The Kingdom of Heaven on earth. This is the way of God. Jesus invites us all to be blessed and included.

FMSC TESTIMONIAL - A World Without Hunger

In the video, "A World Without Hunger," We are invited to:

"Imagine a world without hunger. This is the world we dream of and work toward: A world where bright futures are the norm, where children, families and communities thrive, where hope is greater because of you. Together we feed kids, feed spirits and empower communities. Feed My Starving Children (FMSC) believes hope starts with food. As a Christian nonprofit, FMSC is dedicated to seeing every child whole in body and spirit. FMSC works with food distribution partners that stay with communities for the long haul, empowering them to move from relief to development."
