INTERCESSORY PRAYER

Heavenly Father, we come before you to lift up the sanctuary. Protect this sacred space from harm, division, and distraction. Fill it with your holy presence, peace, and truth. May it remain a safe haven for all who seek your grace, healing, and renewal.

The Lord's Office – Place

Whether traditional or contemporary, the Sanctuary is the place of worship where the Love of God meets the Needs of people. It is not a concert hall, a theatre of entertainment, or a town hall for political deliberations. It is a worship hall, holy and set apart for the work of our King for He has promised to be enthroned upon the worship of the Church. It is a healing place for the Lord has promised to dwell in the worship of the Church. God can and does work anywhere He wants, but He has chosen to visit us in power when we gather in the Spirit. The address in any city, town, or country landscape is the same: The Corner of Spirit and Truth.

A Prayer for the Sanctuary

O Sovereign Lord, grant that our Sanctuary would be a place where

- praises go up and grace comes down,
- proud hearts are humbled and
- searching souls are redeemed,
- broken hearts are mended and
- shattered minds are renewed.

Let this be the place where

- the truth rises on shouts as well as songs,
- the glory falls on hungry hearts,
- the voice of the Spirit, the call of God, is heard once more,
- the anointing flows in fullness, and
- the Word of God is proclaimed with authority.

Let this hallowed room be the place where

- the Holy Spirit rules in power,
- Jesus, the Savior-Healer-Baptizer, walks among us, and
- the loving Heavenly Father embraces the prodigal.

Let it be a place where

- relationships are formed and maintained as
- forgiveness flows to us as we let it flow to others,
- healing flows as a mighty river;
- revelation dawns and
- attitudes are changed.

Here,

- may the plow of worship break up the fallow ground of the hardest heart,
- may tears water the seed of the Word sown therein and
- may discipline, in the Father's strong and loving hands, steady us.

In this Worship Hall,

- let the talented serve and may only the servant shine.
- Let the music of the highest heaven shake the foundations of the lowest hell and heaven's sweetest harmonies soothe the clamor of a fallen creation.
- May Sabbath rest blanket the weary soul.

Here, O Sovereign Lord, in this Your Dwelling Place,

- children laugh and God smiles;
- men kneel and God gives strength;
- women travail and God gives new life.

In the Mighty Name of Jesus, the Sovereign Lord, We all agree. Amen!

Scriptures:

Psalms 22:3 NKJV, KJV

But You are holy, Enthroned in the praises of Israel.

But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel.

Matthew 18:19-20 NKJV

“Again I say* to you that if two of you agree on earth concerning anything that they ask, it will be done for them by My Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered together in My name, I am there in the midst of them.”

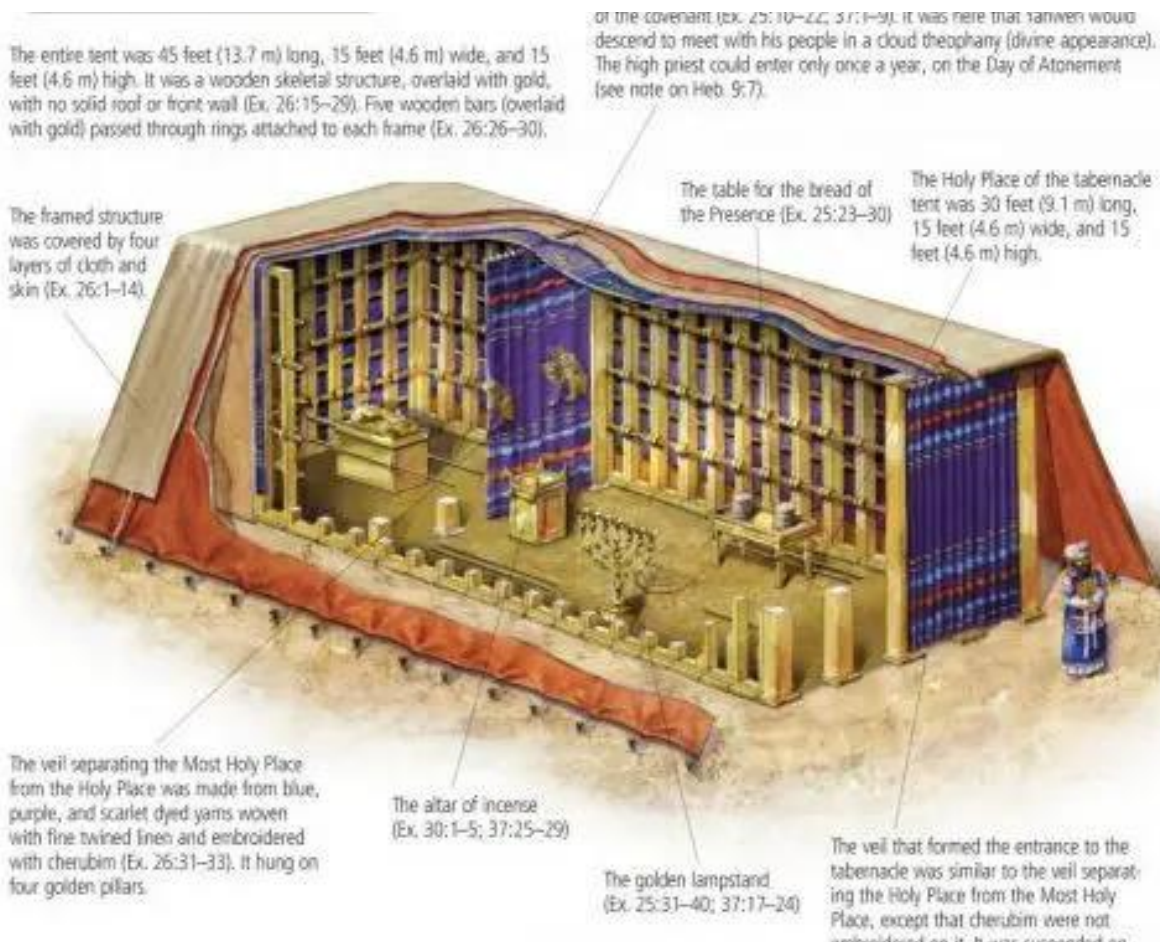

Luke 4:16-22 NKJV

So He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up. And as His custom was, He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read. And He was handed the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when He had opened the book, He found the place where it was written:

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, Because He has anointed Me
To preach the gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,
To proclaim liberty to the captives And recovery of sight to the blind,
To set at liberty those who are oppressed; To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.”

Then He closed the book, and gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all who were in the synagogue were fixed on Him. And He began to say to them, “Today this Scripture is fulfilled in your hearing.”

The Sacred Significance of the Sanctuary: Unveiling its Biblical Meaning

In the Biblical context, understanding the significance of the sanctuary holds profound spiritual depth and symbolism. The concept of sanctuary is woven throughout the scriptures, representing a sacred space where believers can seek refuge, find solace, and experience the presence of God.

"The Lord is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer; my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold." Psalms 18:2

As we explore the Biblical meaning of sanctuary, we delve into the intricate layers of protection, holiness, and divine encounter that this symbol embodies. Join us in this enlightening journey as we uncover the spiritual truths and revelations found within the sanctuary's walls.

The Biblical Meaning of Sanctuary

In the Bible, the concept of sanctuary holds significant spiritual and symbolic importance. The term "sanctuary" is mentioned numerous times throughout the Scriptures, each time carrying a deep and profound message about God's presence, protection, and holiness.

One of the most well-known references to sanctuary is found in the book of Exodus, where God commands the Israelites to build a sanctuary as a place of worship and encounter with Him. This sanctuary, known as the Tabernacle, was a physical representation of God's dwelling among His people.

"Make this tabernacle and all its furnishings exactly like the pattern I will show you." Exodus 25:9

As we delve deeper into the biblical meaning of sanctuary, we understand that it not only refers to a physical place of worship but also symbolizes the inner sanctum of our hearts where God desires to dwell. It represents a sacred space where we can commune with God, find refuge in His presence, and experience His peace and protection.

Throughout the Bible, we see how God's sanctuary is a place of holiness, righteousness, and divine presence. It is a refuge for the weary, a stronghold for the oppressed, and a source of strength for the weak. In times of trouble and uncertainty, God invites us to seek refuge in His sanctuary and find solace in His loving embrace.

The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer; my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold." Psalm 18:2

When we understand the biblical significance of sanctuary, we realize that it goes beyond mere physical structures or religious rituals. It encompasses the very essence of our relationship with God and the intimate connection we share with Him. God's sanctuary is wherever His presence resides, whether in a church building, nature's beauty, or within our hearts.

As we contemplate the biblical meaning of sanctuary, let us reflect on the words of the Psalmist:

"One thing I ask from the LORD, this only do I seek: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze on the beauty of the LORD and to seek him in his temple." Psalm 27:4

May we always seek refuge in God's sanctuary, allowing His presence to fill our hearts with peace, joy, and hope. Let us cherish the sacred spaces where we encounter the living God and experience His transforming love. In the sanctuary of God, we find rest for our souls and strength for our journey.

Let us hold fast to the promise that in God's sanctuary, we are safe, cherished, and deeply loved. May His sanctuary be our refuge and our strength, now and forevermore.
