Daily Prayer Guide

Dear Church Family,

I'm writing to you today with a heart full of hope and a shared vision for our future. As we continue to grow and serve our community, we've reached a pivotal moment in our journey. Our "Step in Faith" capital campaign is officially underway, and I'm asking for your dedicated prayers as we seek God's guidance in raising funds for our next step location. This isn't just about brick and mortar; it's about creating a lasting home where we can continue to welcome, nurture, and serve God's people for generations to come.

The theme of our campaign, "Step in Faith," is more than just a catchy phrase; it's a reflection of our trust in God's provision. As we embark on this monumental endeavor, we're reminded of the words in Hebrews 4:16: "Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need." This verse is our anchor. It encourages us to approach God with assurance, knowing that He hears our prayers and provides for our needs in His perfect timing.

Let us join together in confidence as we trust in God to guide our next steps!

Howard Huhn
Senior Pastor

How to Use this Prayer Guide

It is our hope that this Prayer Guide will be an effective tool for every member, from the youngest to the oldest, at Resurrection Methodist Church. It is divided into 4 weeks (Sept. 28 - Oct. 25), with a different theme each week, anchored by devotionals written by members of our congregation. Please include the weekly focus group in your prayer time as you read through each devotional, Scripture passage, and prayer. May we all experience the blessing of watching God work among us!

Spend a few minutes each day developing the following spiritual practices:

- PRAYER - Begin each day with a prayer to allow God to prepare your mind to hear from Him.
- SCRIPTURE - Read the verse and write it on your heart.
- PONDER - Reflect on what God is asking you to do for the good of His kingdom through your commitment.

We look to God to answer these prayers and are grateful for the steps of faith that each family will take during this season of growth!

Jesus Teaches about Prayer

“When you pray, don’t be like the hypocrites who love to pray publicly on street corners and in the synagogues where everyone can see them. I tell you the truth, that is all the reward they will ever get. But when you pray, shut the door behind you, and pray to your Father in private. Then your Father, who sees everything, will reward you.

When you pray, don’t babble on and on as the Gentiles do. They think their prayers are answered merely by repeating their words again and again. Don’t be like them, for your Father knows exactly what you need even before you ask Him! Pray like this:

Our Father in Heaven,
May Your name be kept holy.
May Your Kingdom come soon
May Your will be done on earth,
as it is in heaven.
Give us today the food we need,
and forgive us our sins,
as we have forgiven those who sin against us.
And don’t let us yield to temptation,
but rescue us from the evil one.

“If you forgive those who sin against you, your heavenly Father will forgive you. But if you refuse to forgive others, your Father will not forgive your sins.”

Matthew 6:5-15 NLT

DEVOTIONAL: TRUST

Focus: God is calling us to step out in faith and trust in Him.

Then Joshua said to the people, "Sanctify yourselves [for His purpose], for tomorrow the Lord will do wonders (miracles) among you." The Lord said to Joshua, "This day I will begin to magnify and exalt you in the sight of all Israel, so that they may know that just as I was with Moses, I will [also] be with you." Joshua said to the Israelites, "Come here," Joshua said, "...By this you shall know that the living God is among you... Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is crossing over ahead of you [leading the way] into the Jordan."

Joshua 3:5, 7, 9-11 (AMP)

It can be easy to say we trust in God...

...we know it is the right way to be, but it is not always simple to trust. Sometimes we get in our own way.

One day I was visiting a support group at a church I was not familiar with and didn't know the layout of the buildings. I was headed to the Outreach Center, and when I pulled into the parking lot, I saw many cars at one end, but not many at the other. I tried to read the sign ahead near the second building. I saw "St. Vincent de Paul" and "Children's Center", but I could not read the words at the bottom of the sign.

I didn't want to be late and started to feel nervous. So, I relied on my "common sense" since all the cars are here, this must be the correct entrance. I parked, walked up the path, and asked the greeter, "Where can I find the Caregivers' support Group?" She said, "Oh, that's down in the next building at the Outreach Center." I thanked her, and, as I walked along the sidewalk and got closer to the sign I had seen before, I realized that it did say "Outreach Center" along the bottom (the portion I couldn't read from the car).

DEVOTIONAL: TRUST

I had tried to rely on my own ability and ended up in the wrong place! Had I kept my focus and trust in God's leading, I would have driven forward just a little bit farther. Then I would have been close enough to the sign to read "Outreach Center" and know that God had indeed brought me to the correct location.

Psalms 91:2 reads, "This I declare about the Lord: He alone is my refuge, my place of safety; He is my God, and I trust Him."

Following God in our everyday lives takes trust. We may remember to trust Him for the big things, but we need to know that we can trust Him for the little things, too, and ALL things. He is worthy of our trust. To help me remember this, I wear a little ring around my finger that has Proverbs 3:5 engraved on it. "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding." I keep it turned so that the word "Lord" is always facing toward me. Then, when I look down at my hands, I fix my gaze on the Lord.

-Kelli Pappas

In that day they will say, "Surely this is our God: we trusted in Him, and He saved us. This is the Lord, we trusted in Him: let us rejoice and be glad in His salvation."

Isaiah 25:9

Holy Spirit,

Help us to listen and truly hear what God is saying to each of us. Open our ears that we may receive wisdom. Help us to make a way to be in Your Word every day. There we learn who You are and who we are in You. We can Trust You. Amen

Prayer Calendar

Sunday, Sept. 28

Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord, who does not look to the proud, to those who turn aside to false gods. (Psalm 40:4)

God, grant our clergy and staff wisdom and guidance as we seek Your will for financial responsibility.

Monday, Sept. 29

The Lord is my strength and my shield; my heart trusts in Him, and He helps me. My heart leaps for joy, and with my song I praise Him. (Psalm 28:7)

God, bless our pastors and staff with a spirit of perseverance when facing difficult tasks and new challenges.

Tuesday, Sept. 30

Whoever gives heed to instruction prospers, and blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord. (Proverbs 16:20)

God, thank you for leadership who serve with a willing heart, a joyful spirit, and continued faithfulness.

Wednesday, Oct. 1

Surely God is my salvation; I will trust and not be afraid. The Lord, the Lord Himself, is my strength and my defense; He has become my salvation. (Isaiah 12:2)

Father, thank you for our clergy and staff who answer Your call to ministry and work so hard for the good of Your Kingdom.

Prayer Calendar

Thursday, Oct. 2

Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. (John 14:1)

God, allow our pastors and staff to set the example that Jesus did not come to be served, but to serve.

Friday, Oct. 3

Those who know Your name trust in You, for You, Lord, Have never forsaken those who seek You. (Psalm 9:10)

Holy Father, through Your grace allow our leaders to implement Your vision of service for our church, our community, and our world.

Saturday, Oct. 4

And when the Israelites saw the mighty hand of the Lord displayed against the Egyptians, the people feared the Lord and put their trust in Him and in Moses His servant. (Exodus 14:31)

Jesus, grant foresight to us as a whole during the Resurrection Methodist Church Step in Faith Campaign.

DEVOTIONAL: GOD'S PROMISES

Focus: God is calling us to remember our past and step toward the future.

And the people of Israel did just as Joshua commanded and took up twelve stones out of the midst of the Jordan, according to the number of the tribes of the people of Israel, just as the Lord told Joshua. And they carried them over with them to the place where they lodged and laid them down there. And Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests bearing the ark of the covenant had stood; and they are there to this day.

Joshua 4:8-9 ESV

God fulfilled his promises dramatically...

...when He instructed the Israelites to set up twelve stones as a memorial after they had crossed the Jordan River. Joshua piled them up in Gilgal, where the Israelites set up camp. The stones, to God's people, Israel, represent a constant reminder that Yahweh is a personal and powerful God, working wonders on behalf of His people, similar to the parting of the Red Sea, when the Israelites left Egypt forty years earlier. They commemorate the mighty acts of God on behalf of His people, but to non-believers, they were just rubble.

Just as the stones served as a reminder for Israel, we as believers today are encouraged to share our faith stories and God's works with the next generation. Acknowledging milestones in our spiritual journey helps us remember God's role in our lives and encourages us to continue trusting Him.

DEVOTIONAL: GOD'S PROMISES

I'd like to share my memorial stones, the perpetual signs of God's Promises fulfilled in my life. I have confessed my sins, gotten rid of the things that stand between me and God, and I have asked for and received His intervention in my life. So to celebrate, I raise this stone and say to all who will look and listen, "Here's what God has done for me!"

When I was baptized as an infant at my home church, Centenary United Methodist, in Lebanon, IN. To this day, every baptism I witness affirms another child claimed by God.

When I met the woman of my dreams, and, with God's prodding, she became my wife and we were united as one. My father was so proud of me that day. Our Father in Heaven was pleased, as well.

When our son was born, we named him Jacob, according to our family's tradition. It was God's guidance that led me to that. Our Father in Heaven was pleased, too.

From one of my favorite hymns, "Come, Thou fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing Thy grace; streams of mercy, never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise...Here I raise mine Ebenezer; hither by Thy help I'm come."

-Jay Westfall

Now Moses said to Hobab, son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out for the place about which the Lord said, 'I will give it to you.' Come with us and we will treat you well, for the Lord has promised good things to Israel."

Numbers 10:29

Prayer Calendar

Sunday, Oct. 5

Know therefore that the Lord your God is God, the faithful God who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love Him and keep His commandments, to a thousand generations. (Deuteronomy 7:9)

God, we pray that through our financial faithfulness and the promise of Your grace, our ministries and programs will continue to grow and serve our community and world.

Monday, Oct. 6

For this God is our God for ever and ever; He will be our guide even to the end. (Psalm 48:14)

God, we pray our mission programs will reach out to the lost and hurting, and we will seek to serve in our community and the world.

Tuesday, Oct. 7

Praise be to the Lord, who has given rest to His people Israel just as He promised. Not one word has failed of all the good promises He gave through His servant Moses. (1 Kings 8:56)

Lord, we pray our youth grow in knowledge of Your Scriptures, discover their spiritual gifts, and answer Your call to use their gifts as witnesses and servants to the world.

Wednesday, Oct. 8

Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for He who promised is faithful. (Hebrews 10:23)

God, we pray that our ministries and programs will allow the light of Christ to shine and grow through the Body of Christ at Resurrection Methodist Church.

Prayer Calendar

Thursday, Oct. 9

Such things were written in the Scriptures long ago to teach us. And the Scriptures give us hope and encouragement as we wait patiently for God's promises to be fulfilled. (Romans 15:4)

God, we pray for our Sunday school classes and small group studies. Through fellowship and study of Your Word, may we grow in our faith and understanding.

Friday, Oct. 10

For no matter how many promises God has made, they are "Yes" in Christ. And so through Him the "Amen" is spoken by us to the glory of God. (2 Corinthians 1:20)

Lord, use our gifts to Resurrection Methodist Church to further strengthen and build our partnerships with other ministries in the community and beyond.

Saturday, Oct. 11

*Not to us, O Lord, not to us, but to Your Name goes all the glory for Your unfailing love and faithfulness.
(Psalm 115:1)*

God, we pray that all our ministries and programs will be faithful to the mission given to the Church by our Savior, Jesus Christ, to be His witnesses throughout the world.

DEVOTIONAL: COMMITTED TO GOD

Focus: God is calling us to re-dedicate ourselves to Him and be faithful to His calling.

While the Israelites were camped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho, they celebrated Passover on the evening of the fourteenth day of the month. The day after the Passover, that very day, they ate some of the produce of the land: unleavened bread and roasted grain. The manna stopped the day after they ate this food from the land; there was no longer any manna for the Israelites, but that year they ate the produce of Canaan.

Joshua 5:10-12

God made the decision...

...to let the Israelites wander in the wilderness for 40 years because of their disobedience, instead of letting them into the Promised Land immediately. With all of the challenges with living in the middle of nowhere, God never left them and already had a plan for them, regardless of how hopeless things felt. On top of this painful punishment, God still asked the Israelite men to circumcise themselves to fulfill His covenant to His people. It is the sign that they were set apart. They willingly went through extreme physical pain because of their faith in His promises, and this shows the Israelites' intense commitment to God. They followed His command because they know that God's way is the right way and the only way to live. The plan that the Creator has for us is much better than what we can do for ourselves which is why it is so important to carry out His Word.

Commitment to God is a "deep and active devotion demonstrated through actions, prayer, obedience, and a lifestyle of holiness and integrity." For example, reading our Bibles, praying daily, and setting aside time to connect with God on a deeper level.

DEVOTIONAL: COMMITTED TO GOD

As Colossians 3:2 says, we should “set [our] minds on things above, not on earthly things.” This verse calls us to limit the things that distract us from connecting with God and committing fully to Him. We can also commit to God in the way we act and in the things we say wherever we may be. Are our actions pure and godly? Are we saying things that are harmful to others or things that lift them up?

Through our dedication to become fully focused followers of Christ, God can create many wonderful and miraculous things. For the Israelites, He turned their land to become fertile and no longer needed to constantly provide them with manna every single day in Canaan. This was a result of His contentment with His people fully devoting themselves to Him and showing greater admiration by listening clearly to His commands. This shows that, if we are obedient to God, He will provide for us in the ways that we need it most.

As the congregation of Resurrection Methodist Church, we need to devote ourselves physically, spiritually, and mentally if we want to see the Lord moving through our Church. Sometimes it’s not always what we do together in our community, but what we as individuals do that can strengthen our Church. The commitment that each of us has with God means much more than the commitment of only one person.

- Esdra Periera and Jucelia Miranda

Then Hezekiah said, “You have now dedicated yourselves to the Lord. Come and bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the temple of the Lord.” So the assembly brought sacrifices and thank offerings, and all whose hearts were willing brought burnt offerings.

2 Chronicles 29:31

Prayer Calendar

Sunday, Oct. 12

Your love, Lord, reaches to the heavens, Your faithfulness to the skies. (Psalm 36:5)

Father, create in our church family a longing to follow Jesus and to faithfully serve our church and community.

Monday, Oct. 13

I do not hide your righteousness in my heart [instead I proclaim it]; I speak of Your faithfulness and Your saving help. I do not conceal Your love and Your faithfulness from the great assembly. (Psalm 40:10)

Lord, allow us to share Your love with our church family, and give us the strength to speak of Your great faithfulness.

Tuesday, Oct. 14

Your faithfulness continues through all generations; You established the earth, and it endures. (Psalm 119:90)

God, thank You for Your faithfulness, which established the world that we live in. Please let it support our church and the next generations of the church to come.

Wednesday, Oct. 15

Because of the Lord's great love, we are not consumed, for His compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is Your faithfulness. (Lamentations 3:22-23)

Thank You, O God, for Your love and mercies. Help us acknowledge Your faithfulness and show others Your steadfast love.

Prayer Calendar

Thursday, Oct. 16

He gave them these orders: "You must serve faithfully and wholeheartedly in the fear of the Lord..." (2 Chronicles 19:9)

Lord, let everything that we do be done in faithfulness and with our whole hearts. May we know how to walk in reverence before You.

Friday, Oct. 17

Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, and in purity. (1 Timothy 4:12)

Lord, please help us set an example for what Your love looks like through what we say, do, and think, despite our youth or other insecurities.

Saturday, Oct. 18

*Lord, You are my God; I will exalt You and praise Your name, for in perfect faithfulness You have done wonderful things, things planned long ago.
(Isaiah 25:1)*

God, let us exalt and praise Your name for all the blessings You have given and will continue to give to Resurrection Methodist Church.

DEVOTIONAL: SURRENDER

Focus: God is calling us to be His servants and step forward with humility, surrender, and worship.

Now when Joshua was near Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him with a drawn sword in his hand. Joshua went up to him and asked, "Are you for us or for our enemies?" "Neither," he replied, "but as commander of the army of the Lord I have now come." Then Joshua fell facedown to the ground in reverence, and asked him, "What message does my Lord have for His servant?" The commander of the Lord's army replied, "Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy." And Joshua did so.

Joshua 5:13-15

Joshua and the people of Israel...

...had been following their leader Moses through the wilderness for the last 40 years. When Moses passes, Joshua is named as his successor. Although he had Moses as a mentor, as the new commander of Israel's army, Joshua bore the weight of leadership. Yet, despite all the new duties of his new role, such as being responsible for the lives of the Israelites and conquering enemies, he made up his mind not to let all this go to his head, but to remember that ultimate authority rests, not with human leaders, but with God Himself. In other words, Joshua knew that he must surrender in order to win.

When I was a young superintendent, I was pulled off a project where I was second in command to do a hospital remodel project in the medical center, replacing a superintendent who had resigned. It was my first time running a project in lieu of being an assistant, and although I was nervous, I was stoked!

Once I got a couple of weeks into my new assignment, I realized that it wasn't just one project, but multiple remodel projects running simultaneously.

DEVOTIONAL: SURRENDER

I was getting thrown into the fire of managing infection control plans, containment walls, negative air machines and readings, coordinating with operations and safety personnel, badging requirements, utility shutdown scheduling and paperwork, running labor crews, learning the rules of the hospital, and how to communicate with irritated doctors, nurses, and administrators. And then about two months into the fiasco, the project manager resigned, and his replacement was even younger than I was.

I thought all I had to do was work harder. Concentrate. Work more hours. But, no matter what I did, I kept falling farther and farther behind, getting scolded more often, and having more and more eyes on me, which resulted in an increase in remedial work and paperwork.

Finally, one day, when I knew I was at my breaking point and going to completely fail, I walked outside and prayed for guidance. I don't remember the Lord specifically speaking to me, but after I finished praying, I put my ego aside, called my boss, and told him what the deal was. Turns out he already had an idea of what was going on, and he had been waiting for me to call him. He told me he had another superintendent available who was waiting on a project to start and that he'd send him down to give me a hand.

Things quickly got better; the projects got back on track, and the hospital operations staff backed off. I learned a lot through that experience, but mainly that if I hadn't been trying to do it all myself. If I had prayed for God's guidance and trusted Him at the beginning instead of waiting until things went south, then I wouldn't have had all the issues, anxiety, and sleepless nights that I did.

We need to always remember that God is the ultimate leader and that although we may have our own plans and want to do things our own way, we can't accomplish anything without Him. We must surrender to win!

-Dustin Minor

Wait patiently for the Lord. Be brave and courageous. Yes, wait patiently for the Lord. Psalms 27:14

Prayer Calendar

Sunday, Oct. 19

Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to Him, and He will make your paths straight. (Proverbs 3:5-6)

Lord, You know that we often fear giving up control, but please help us, as the Body of Christ, to put our trust in You even when we are hesitant and fear the unknown.

Monday, Oct. 20

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. (Philippians 4:6)

Lord, when we find ourselves consumed by stress, anxiousness, and worry please help us put our emotions into prayers and open our ears to hear Your replies to follow the mission that Jesus gave to the Church.

Tuesday, Oct. 21

Show me Your ways, Lord, teach me Your paths. Guide me in Your truth and teach me, for You are God my Savior, and my hope is in You all day long. . (Psalm 25:4-5)

Let us not grow tired of seeking Your Word, LORD, so that we may grow the Body of Christ by Your teachings and choose our paths based on Your guidance.

Wednesday, Oct. 22

Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that He may lift you up in due time. Cast all your anxiety on Him because He cares for you. (1 Peter 5:6-7)

Lord, please help us to put aside our pride and seek You, not only in times of trouble, but also in times of great joy, so that we keep You at the forefront of our lives at all times.

Prayer Calendar

Thursday, Oct. 23

Commit your way (everything you have and do) to the LORD; trust in Him and He will do [what is best for you; sustain you].

(Psalm 37:5)

God, please remove all our doubt so we can fully commit our lives, our families, jobs, possessions, entrusting all to You.

Friday, Oct. 24

The heart of man plans his way, but the Lord establishes his steps. (Proverbs 16:9)

Heavenly Father, please purify our hearts so that our thoughts and desires always please You. Help us to remember to walk with You always as we build the Body of Christ.

Saturday, Oct. 25

If you need wisdom, ask your generous God, and He will give it to you. He will not rebuke you for asking.

(James 1:5)

Help us to always see Your wisdom, O Lord, so that we may always make decisions and choices that are in accordance with Your will for the Body of Christ.

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

My prayer is that our fellowship with you as believers will bring about a deeper understanding of every blessing which we have in our lives in union with Christ.

Philemon 1:6

How is Christ calling you to step forward in your faith?
What obstacles have been in the way?

How can you rely on the Holy Spirit to empower you?

What will your spiritual legacy be?

Will you encourage and mentor younger generations in their faith?

How can you renew your commitment to God?

What role can our church play in uniting and building up the Body of Christ?

Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, "This is the way; walk in it."

Isaiah 30:21

PERSONAL FAMILY COMMITMENT

Pray...Not until God hears you, but until you hear God.

Set aside an appointed time for this discernment, free from distraction, for your family to meet, pray, study, and discuss what your commitment will be. This time of holy conferencing might take 30 minutes to an hour, depending upon the number of family members and age of your children. Instruct each family member to consider sacrifices that God wants that person and the entire family to make in order to give. Be sure to include each child so that every family member has the opportunity to experience the joy of giving sacrificially to God. Know that God works through each of us, no matter how big or small the giver or the gift. Decide as a family what you will give, and write it down on the Commitment Card, which will be turned in on October 19, Commitment Sunday.

Thank God and praise Him for all He has given your family. “Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows.” (James 1:17)

When we obey, God’s blessing radiates through us to others. As our Family of Believers has been obedient in the past, God has allowed us to reach even more people. As you pray for God to expand our Church’s mission, ask Him to help you choose obedience and develop your ministry.

God calls all of us to actively serve one another. As our church family grows, so do the opportunities to serve! As we look forward, be ready to hear from God what your role will be with regard to your time, your talents, and your treasures.

PERSONAL FAMILY COMMITMENT

Pray in particular for...

- the Holy Spirit to direct you regarding your responsibility to give.
- God's help making a family decision according to His will.
- God's provision as you step out in faith.
- God to give to you what you will give in joy.
- gratitude for what God has done and will do.
- the obedience to be faithful in your decision.
- the willingness to be in worship on Commitment Sunday, October 19, as we all dedicate our commitments to Step In Faith.
- the opportunity to be a positive influence in everything you say and do for the Lord.

...then choose today whom you will serve.

But as for me and my family, we will serve the LORD.

Joshua 24:15 (NLT)

Commitment Sunday – October 19

Prayer Focus: May our church family be in full attendance and ready to make a commitment to the success of the Step in Faith campaign. May we see where God is leading and place more emphasis on prayer in His direction than our own plans.

Heavenly Father,

Having sought Your guidance, Lord, and filled with the power of Your Holy Spirit, allow us to give from the abundance of our grateful hearts. We acknowledge that on our own, we can do nothing. But, through Your grace, all things are possible. We ask that You take our gifts, Lord, and multiply them tenfold, that we will be financially responsible, free to grow, and free to serve.

Thank You for calling us to step out in faith. Equip us with boldness and courage to follow Your lead, and strengthen our faith as we take steps into the unknown. May we be witnesses of Your love and grace to the world.

Thank You for the opportunity to serve the global church. Show us how we can take part in empowering believers across nations to grow Your Kingdom. May our efforts bring You glory and uplift those in need of Your Word.

Commitment Sunday – October 19

Thank You for placing us in our community to be a light for You. Help us to encourage one another in love and unity as we build relationships that glorify You. May our works of service reflect Your Kingdom here on Earth.

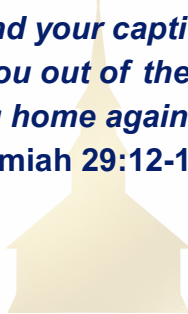

Thank You for the privilege of investing in the lives of the next generations. May we be faithful in preparing them with wisdom, encouragement, and love. Empower them to boldly live out their callings and make disciples in every area of life.

It is in the Precious and Holy Name of Jesus we seek and pray.

Amen

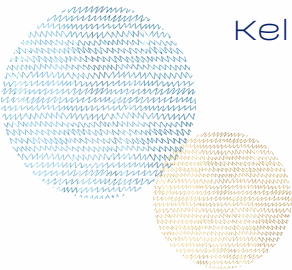

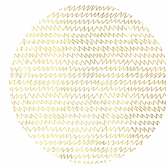

In those days when you pray, I will listen. If you look for me wholeheartedly, you will find me. I will be found by you,” says the Lord. “I will end your captivity and restore your fortunes. I will gather you out of the nations where I sent you and will bring you home again to your own land.”
