

ROMANS

Study #14

LCWG
Fall, 2015

Chapter Eight Verses 33-39

Paul now shifts into legal or _____ imagery.

The answer to the potential grand jury investigation is twofold:

- 1.
- 2.

So, where is the "right hand" of God?

Psalm 110:1

Paul probably has Isaiah 53:12 in mind...

What difference does this make for you, today?

It is possible to see in verse 35 a "history of _____."

In the first century, being a Christian was _____.

How does the context of Psalm 44:22 add weight to verse 36?

Paul declares that we are _____!

The exhaustive list in 38 & 39 is meant to cover _____.

1. All of human _____.
2. All _____ forces of evil.
3. All possible divisions of _____.
4. All the extremes of the surrounding _____.

Over all stands the unchanging and unstoppable _____ of God.

Chapter Nine

Verses 1-5

This opens a three chapter section on the question of _____.

We could _____ to 12 and the letter would be _____.

What is Paul's driving question?

What is the larger problem that is at stake, here?

What sort of treatment had Paul often received from his fellow Jews?

Yet his attitude reflects the very core of the _____.

We also see Paul's affinity with the _____.

Paul chooses the word _____, which is as potent as it sounds!

There's a close parallel with Moses, but a difference...

Exodus 32:32

What are the references in each step of Paul's litany of Israel's privilege?

A big question swirls around the translation of verse 5:

1.

2.

The latter option highlights the crucial issue at stake in the church:

Is Jesus _____ or _____?

How relevant is this question in 2015?