

Counseling Referrals

When you are hurting, it can be difficult to see beyond the pain of your circumstances. In order to heal from it, we must deal with it. Let us help connect you with a professional counselor. The following counselors have been vetted by, but are not associated with, Boulder Mountain Community Church. They counsel from a Biblical worldview. Please do your own research to find a professional that will suit your needs. If financial assistance is a need, please contact the Church office for a Care Application.
