Sign of the Times: A Study of Revelation | Are we living in the end times?

Conversation Guide

Grab a few friends or reflect on these questions by yourself to apply this weekend's message to your daily life.

1. Do you think we are living in the end times? Why or why not?
2. When you think about “the end,” what sorts of feelings come up in you? Why do you think that is?
3. What does it look like to fear God? Does that phrase feel strange or familiar? How does your understanding of fear shape the way you relate to God?
4. If the end times make you uneasy, how could you reframe your perspective to be full of hope? If you’re already feeling hopeful about the end times, how does that anchor you today?
5. What does it mean to be ready for the return of Jesus? What’s one thing you can do today to prepare for it?
6. Spend some time in prayer, telling God about how you feel about the end times. If you're worried, ask him to bring peace. Be honest with your doubts and allow him to deepen your trust in him. Thank him for the plans he has for the future and for inviting you to be a part of them.

This is a revelation from Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his servants events that must soon take place.

Revelation 1:10-11

It was the Lord's Day, and I was worshiping in the Spirit. Suddenly, I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet blast. It said, "Write in a book everything you see, and send it to the seven churches."

Revelation 1:19

"Write down what you have seen—both the things that are now happening and the things that will happen."

Revelation 1:3

God blesses the one who reads the words of this prophecy to the church, and he blesses all who listen to its message and obey what it says.

"However, no one knows the day or hour when these things will happen, not even the angels in heaven or the Son himself. Only the Father knows."

Matthew 24:37

“When the Son of Man returns, it will be like it was in Noah’s day.

2 Timothy 3:1-5

But mark this: There will be terrible times in the last days. People will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, proud, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God— having a form of godliness but denying its power.”

Matthew 24:44

“The Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him.”

Matthew 24:43

“If the owner of the house had known at what time of night the thief was coming, he would have kept watch and would not have let his house be broken into.”

Luke 21:36

“Be always on the watch, and that you may be able to stand before the Son of Man.”

Revelation 1:4-5

Grace and peace to you from the one who is, who always was, and who is still to come; from the sevenfold Spirit before his throne; and from Jesus Christ. He is the faithful witness, the first to rise from the dead, and the ruler of all the kings of the world.

Revelation 1:8

“I am the Alpha and the Omega—the beginning and the end. I am the one who is, who always was, and who is still to come—the Almighty one.”

2 Peter 3:9

The Lord isn’t being slow about his promise to return, as some people think. No, he is being patient for your sake. He does not want anyone to perish, so he is giving more time for everyone to repent.

Revelation 1:7

“Look, he is coming with the clouds”, and “every eye will see him, even those who pierced him.”
