Hypothermia Shelter Meals (Registration open!). As winter approaches, so does a meaningful opportunity to make a difference. Sign up for our Hypothermia Shelter Meals Ministry, where volunteers help provide hot, nourishing meals each Wednesday, December through March. This year, the need is greater than ever, with the shelter serving approximately 70 guests nightly. Our congregation committed to providing at least 40 meals each week. Whether you prepare a meal, donate supplies, or serve in person, your kindness can bring comfort, dignity, and hope to those experiencing homelessness during the coldest months. Meal preparation is simple. Think of it like packing a meal for a family picnic, using disposable containers and easy-to-eat foods such as shredded meats and soft fruits. In-person serving opportunities are available for volunteers 18 and older. Join us in sharing Christ's love through this vital ministry and help ensure our neighbors receive a warm meal and a welcoming smile this winter.
