

BRING IT ON HOME!

Parents

Today's Bible Story is from 1 Samuel 16.

For Fun:

Play this mirror, mirror game!

One family member is the "mirror." Another member makes funny faces, actions, or movements, and the "mirror" copies them.

Talk about how sometimes we copy what other people say or think about us. But the most important "mirror" is God's Word—He shows us who we really are!

Tour Challenge:

BK Families! Make some posters of the Scriptures below (or others!) and put them all over the house!

Who does God say I am?

Genesis 1:27 Ephesians 2:10

Psalms 139:14 1 Peter 2:9

~Say our declaration for this week together:

I am who God says I am!

THE ELEMENTARY NEWS!

This is the place to stay up to date on all that's happening in BK Elementary!

BELTWAY KIDS | @beltwaykids

Thursday, September 25th & Sunday, September 28th

David was just a young shepherd boy, the youngest in his family, but God chose him for something special—he would one day be king! David didn't know all of God's plans, but he knew he could trust God. We don't have to know everything about the future to trust God either. God chose you and loves you! Sometimes things won't look the way we expect, but just like David, we can trust that God has a good plan and that we are who He says we are.
