OUT FOR DELIVERY

Out for Delivery is a series about what it looks like to live on mission right where you are. We're exploring how God is already at work around us, how we join Him through everyday relationships and courageous faith, and why mission is never meant to stay contained to a select few. Along the way, we're seeing how discipleship, risk, and sharing our own stories all become part of the way we participate in what God is doing.

You don't have to wait for a trip, a program, or some future moment to get involved. The mission is already in motion.
